Expansion Of Social Security Benefits Now Assured For Millions Of Citizens

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Truman has signed legislation providing for a 540 million dollar a year expansion of Social Security benefits.

Truman called the measure "an important landmark in the progress of our Social Security system."

The President, however, expressed deep regret at what he called "one drawback" — congressional failure to "take proper action to preserve the Old-Age and Survivors Insurance rights of persons who become permanently and totally disabled."

8,000,000 Affected

The new program provides that:

About 4½ million retired persons will have their monthly Social Security payments increased by $5 or 12½ per cent, whichever is greater, effective after Sept. 1;

And almost 3½ million recipients of public assistance—the aged, blind, totally disabled and dependent children—will share in a 300 million dollar boost in the federal government's grants to the states for such programs.

The act calls for a $5 boost in monthly payments for the aged and disabled to begin Oct. 1 and run for two years; and this amount would be doubled if the federal grant is matched by the states.

Retroactive Provision

The provision affecting the blind, calling for a like increase, is effective retroactively to July 1, and will run until Sept. 30, 1954.

The aid to dependent children will be boosted by $3 a month for each recipient and this will run from Oct. 1 until Sept. 30, 1954.

Other provisions in the law:

There will be increased payments, also, for most wives, widows and children who qualify for survivors benefits under the Social Security program:

The formula covering payments to persons who go on the retired rolls in the future will reflect at least a $5 a month increase;

And the amount of earnings a retired person can get without losing his benefits will be $75 a month instead of the present $50.

No protection was provided for the insurance rights of the totally disabled.

But the law authorizes the Federal Security Administration to make agreements with state agencies regarding the medical examinations of persons totally and permanently disabled.

It also calls for a study of procedures by which such persons can apply to the Social Security Board for a freeze of their work record during the period of their disability so their eventual retirement benefits will not be diminished as a result of their period of disability.

But the act prevents disabled persons from applying for such relief until after Congress has again acted on the matter.

'Old Baldy' Battle Now In 3rd Day

Rain, Muddy Slopes Fail To Stop Allies

SEOUL, Korea (Saturday) (AP) — Allied infantrymen today launched an attack across the muddy slopes of "Old Baldy" in a renewed effort to drive a Chinese Communist battalion from its foothold on the strategic western front position west of Chorwon.

Heavy rains which pelted the area during the night made the going slow and slippery.

Heavy artillery fire by both sides continued. The United Nations again brought up tanks to blast the reds.

By late Saturday morning Allied troops held one slope of Old Baldy and the Reds held the other.

No One In Control

"The hill is not controlled by anybody," a U.S. Eighth Army staff officer said.

He reported that the Reds holding the Old Baldy sector fired, in the 24 hours ending at 6 p.m. Friday, an average of seven shells a minute. This was one of the heaviest concentrations thrown by the Communists in the entire Korean war.

About 200 Chinese last night raided an Allied position at the bottom of nearby "T-Bone Hill." They were driven off after a 90-minute battle.

As the fighting for Old Baldy went into its third day, rain curtailed Allied aerial attacks on the Reds.

Four Planes Lost

The Fifth Air Force reported today it lost four planes during the past week. Two F-86 Sabre jets were shot down in air battles with Communist MIG-15s and two other planes were shot down by Red ground fire.

The weekly summary claimed one MIG-15 and one type-15 Red fighter destroyed and two MIGs probably destroyed.

Naval operations Friday were restricted by the heavy fog which blanketed both coasts.

Truce Break Yet To Come

MUNSAN (Saturday) (INS) — Korea armistice delegates met for only 29 minutes today and agreed to convene again tomorrow at another secret session.

They apparently were still deadlocked over the prisoner exchange issue.

Talks were resumed at Panmunjom Friday after a four-day recess during which a flurry of rumors aroused speculation that a break in the long stalemate was near.

The only comment on the meeting by an Allied spokesman was that the discussions were conducted in "business-like" fashion.

Expectation of a sudden change had been stirred by disclosure that India is negotiating directly with the Chinese to end the war and by announcement of Red China that it would adhere with reservations to the Geneva convention governing treatment of prisoners.

Part Dismissal Of Gas Rates Rise Requested

WASHINGTON (AP)—A motion to reject the greater part of a rate increase asked by Northern Natural Gas Co. was argued before the Power Commission.

Alvin Kurtz, staff counsel, asked the Commission to refuse to consider again in this hearing issues which he said had already been decided last month in another case involving Northern.

The motion would have the effect, he said, of cutting from $10,600,000 a year to three millions the amount of the rate increase proposed in the pending application.

Richard J. Connor, Northern's counsel, opposed the motion. He said it would deny Northern due process of law.

In the June decision on a previous Northern rate increase application, the Commission rejected Northern's claim for a conservation value of eight cents per thousand cubic feet for natural gas taken from its Kansas Hugoton fields as required by the Kansas Corporation Commission.

It also denied Northern's proposal to charge a separate rate to wholesale customers for gas for their own use.

Treaty Talks Resumed By Japan, South Korea

TOKYO (Saturday) (INS)—Informed Japanese sources have disclosed that negotiations for a treaty of friendship between Japan and South Korea have been resumed.

The talks were broken off last April following a Korean refusal to consider Japanese claims for compensation for civilian property confiscated in Korea.

Ninth Huskerville Polio Case Found As Meeting Calms Fears

By ALLAN EDEE
(Star Staff Writer)

Another Huskerville polio case —the ninth so far this year at the airport community—was discovered Friday afternoon, shortly before Dr. Paul Bancroft of Lincoln spoke to a Huskerville mass meeting, seeking to calm parental fears there.

The new Huskerville case raised the county total of polio cases to 18.

Name of the new polio victim was not released to the press.

Meeting outside the settlement church Friday night, Dr. Bancroft told 150 present that "more than 80 per cent of you have had polio." It is a common disease, he said.

He pointed out that "As a rule, parents almost never contract polio from children."

The Lincoln physician, speaking unofficially to worried parents, listed a number of sensible things to do about polio:

1. Destroy flies and insects.

2. Have good sewage disposal. (The doctor said Huskerville's disposal was as good as any in Lincoln.)

3. Have good drinking water. (He said the settlement has the best drinking water in the state.)

4. Get plenty of sleep, clean food, and maintain clean bodily habits.

5. Protect yourself from injuries, excessive sun baths and chilling.

He warned the audience not to make a special trip to get away from the polio, saying it would only axhaust the children to take such a long trip unnecessarily.

"My two boys are going to swim in public pools, go to shows, and live a normal life," Dr. Bancroft said. He pleaded with the people not to "tear their hearts out with panic."

"If you really want something to worry about," the doctor said, "worry about the day your child will be struck by a car—a far more dangerous hazard."

Lester Sanger, acting director of the Lincoln-Lancaster County Health Department, explained that by the time the diagnosis of polio is recognized, the infectious stage is passed.

Dr. Bancroft, in reply to question from a parent, said a quarantine of members of the family in a home in which a case was reported would do little good.

Will Restudy

Questioned about releasing the names of the polio patients, Sanger said he would consult with the president of the local Board of Health, the medical consultant and a physician on the Board Saturday morning to determine whether a meeting should be called to decide upon reversing the policy of not giving out the names and addresses of the polio patients.

At present, only the number of cases are released to the press.

Dr. G. W. Dean, clinic physician said the issue was a question to be decided by legal authority.

A couple of Huskerville residents claimed that some doctors would not make calls at the housing settlement.

Being Observed

William James Donnelly, 2, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard E. Donnelly of Huskerville, whose five-year-old brother, Richard, died Thursday of polio, was still being held for observation at Orthopedic Hospital Friday night.

Attendants said another day or two would be required before they could determine whether he too had polio.

Two more children from Huskerville were reported Friday to be under observation.

Joe Clark, assistant manager of Huskerville, said garbage cans and racks would be sprayed, and new garbage cans supplied where needed. He also said the small creek near the settlement, would be sprayed with DDT if needed to fight the disease.

Legion Women Hold Prelude To Convention

Finance, service work, and Girls' State were topics under discussion at the opening executive meetings of the American Legion Auxiliary State Convention Friday at the Cornhusker Hotel.

Mrs. Charles M. Bosley, past president of the Auxiliary, Palisade, presided over the service coordination meeting. Suggestions pertaining to child welfare, rehabilitation, and the education of veterans' orphans were made by the committee and will be referred to the Executive Board, which meets on Saturday at 9 a.m.

The Girls' State executive committee heard a report on finances and the summary of the year's work. Mrs. John E. Curtiss, Lincoln, read the report.

The Auxiliary convention will formally get under way on Saturday with the registration of delegates at 9 a.m.

Mrs. Euga Campbell, Homer, La., national president, will speak at the delegates' banquet in the ballroom of the Cornhusker Hotel at 7 p.m. Sunday. Mrs. William J. McVicker, Lincoln, will serve as toastmistress.

The 32nd annual convention of the American Legion Auxiliary will officially end Tuesday.

Play Mishap Sees Clothes Hanger Go Down Tot's Throat

OMAHA (AP)—Michael J. Anusevich, 3, fell while playing with a plastic clothes hanger between his teeth.

About half the 15-inch hanger went into the boy's mouth and down his throat.

Fire Department rescue squadmen snipped off the protruding section then whisked Michael off to the hospital.

Less than 25 minutes later the hospital reported that the rest of the hanger had been removed, the boy was all right and he would be on his way home to play some more shortly.

Outright Draft Only Step Left To Demos

Illinois Governor To Ask Supporters Not To Nominate Him At Convention

CHICAGO. (AP)—Gov. Adlai E. Stevenson Friday night refused to open his door and step out into the race for the Democratic presidential nomination—and he apparently locked it against everything but an outright draft.

The Illinois governor rejected pleas of Illinois party leaders that he make himself available.

Stevenson, mentioned across the nation for months as a man very likely to land on the top spot on the Democratic national ticket, huddled for two hours with party chieftains.

But, at the end of the session, Chairman Joseph L. Gill of the powerful Cook County Democratic Committee told newsmen:

"We urged the governor to reconsider his position without success. He still asked us to respect his wishes and not do anything to further his candidacy."

Reporters earlier had asked Stevenson if he would accept a draft if the convention became deadlocked.

"That's a question I can't answer until I come to it," he replied. "Such a situation is inconceivable."

Jacob M. Arvey, Illinois national committeeman and one of the leaders who conferred with the governor, took up the draft subject later.

Arvey said that if a deadlocked convention should turn to Stevenson, "I am certain he will accept the nomination and make a strong campaign."

Gill said the Illinois delegation, which swings a heavy bundle of 60 votes, will stand on the sidelines temporarily to see what happens. It could happen, he conceded, that a delegate from some other state will place Stevenson in nomination.

Question Of Draft

Stevenson, who has repeatedly stated he wishes to run only for re-election as governor, has not said he would turn down a draft.

And a draft now seems the only way to get him into the national political arena.

Newsmen asked whether the governor would have something more to say. Stevenson, leaving to visit friends on Chicago's North Shore, strode toward the door and said:

"You've heard all I've had to say for months."

Told by a reporter that Archibald Alexander, a New Jersey delegate, had stated he would present Stevenson's name to the convention if nobody else does, the Illinois governor expressed surprise.

"I will ask all the delegates not to put me in nomination and not to nominate me," he said.

He added he will "do everything I can to discourage" a proposed move by Gov. Henry Schricker of Indiana to place Stevenson's name in nomination.

But two men who do want the nomination, Sen. Estes Kefauver and Mutual Security Director Averell Harriman, held a conference. So did some of their lieutenants.

Harriman confirmed that much but insisted there were "no deals."

The only purpose, he told reporters, was to push for liberal ideas at the convention that opens Monday.

That goes, Harriman indicated, for the seating of pro-administration delegations from Texas and Mississippi. Those delegations are locked in a contest with anti-Truman slates in disputes involving 70 convention votes.

Vice-President Barkley stepped spryly into town without any hemming and hawing about his own intentions. He wants the nomination and said he expects to get it.

Labor Being Wooed

The 74-year-old Veep pointed up his opposition to the Taft-Hartley labor law. And he said he would be glad to see any labor leaders.

That seems to be part of a pattern of candidate efforts to get right with union men.

Sen. Robert S. Kerr of Oklahoma took his stand on Taft-Hartley, too:

"I opposed it when it was passed. I have opposed it since. I have supported whatever proposals have been made to amend or repeal it."

The Oklahoman claimed the Democratic nomination by the fifth or sixth ballot.

Planes, Ships Seek To Save 51 In Atlantic

NEWPORT, R.I. (AP)—A Norwegian tanker sent out an SOS shortly before midnight Friday night that it was afire about 73 miles south of the Brenton Reef Lightship. It reported its crew abandoned ship.

The Coast Guard immediately dispatched four cutters and two planes to the scene.

The vessel was identified as the Black Gull. Its emergency message did not specify whether there were any casualties.

The Coast Guard in New York said the 51 persons aboard the burning ship abandoned the craft without lifeboats.

The planes were equipped with extra life rafts.

The Black Gull radioed that all lifeboats had been burned or lost.

Aboard were nine passengers and 42 crewmen.

Austrians Restore Rights, Property To Former Nazis

VIENNA (AP)—Over the protests of international Jewish leaders, the Austrian parliament has passed three laws restoring property and civil rights to 34,000 former Nazis.

The laws can be vetoed by only one of the four occupation powers. Jewish leaders said they hoped the U. S. High Commission would disallow them.

The laws give back civil rights and property to 28,000 former noncommissioned officers and Nazis up to the rank of cell leader. Another 6,000 major Nazi offenders will get back their property only.

The laws also lift a three-year-old freeze on advancement and pay increases for 30,000 public officials who were minor Nazis.

Is There Magic In Numbers . . . 1912 . . . 1932 . . . 1952?

By J. E. LAWRENCE
(Editor, The Lincoln Star)

CHICAGO—Same old town! Same noisy business!

Same blaring bands—same crowded hotels—and, yes to some extent, the same "characters" who were here earlier this month, 20 years ago, and 40 years ago!

Change may be all 'round and about but political conventions, never, and that is not a nasty crack at some political orator pulling the tailfeathers out of the eagle and making it scream. Here we are again for the Democratic National Convention. The man must be a glutton for punishment!

☆ ☆ ☆

Twice since the beginning of this century of scientific and mechanical advance, presidential elections, preceded of course, by nominating conventions, have come in years in which the last figure is a "2." We disclaim any interest in the numbers racket. We are not superstitious. We are impressed by the fact that in 1912—and again in 1932—20 years later —political developments in the conventions held in Chicago changed the entire course of American history. In 1912 the split between the late William H. Taft and the late Theodore Roosevelt gave birth to the Bull Moose party and made victory easy for the nominee of the Democratic party which held its convention in Baltimore—the late President Woodrow Wilson—a convention bitterly fought and again revealin a Nebraskan, the late W. J. Bryan, filling a vital role. Now, 20 years later again, decisions reached here next week, coupled with decisions arrived at during the second week of July—for the third time may change the course of American history.

. . . In 1912 a Nebraskan, the late W. J. Bryan, had much to do with Woodrow Wilson's nomination (above).

Turn back the years! We pointed out earlier in advance of the Republican National Convention that as chairman of the Republican National Committee, the late Victor Rosewater, former Nebraska newspaper publisher and editor, had an important hand in the nomination of President Taft. At Baltimore in 1912, Champ Clark, a Missouri Democrat, high in the councils of his party, for years speaker of the House, and the easy winner of the Nebraska primary, seemed headed for certain nomination. The Missourian had a majority of the delegates but under the two-thirds rule, was short of the required number.

After fruitless balloting, at a psychologically timely point Mr. Bryan read his famous resolution denouncing Wall Street support and in practical effect swinging his support to Woodrow Wilson. Wilson was nominated, went on to defeat both Taft and Roosevelt and in the first four years of his administration, to initiate a thorough-going program of domestic reforms which characterized an era of liberal progress. Among those reforms was the establishment of the principle of taxation based upon ability to pay as written into the income tax law, the Federal Reserve Banking System, and the principle of the eight-hour day for workers.

But most important, Woodrow Wilson fought the fight—a losing fight—for American acceptance of international responsibility in a world growing smaller and smaller.

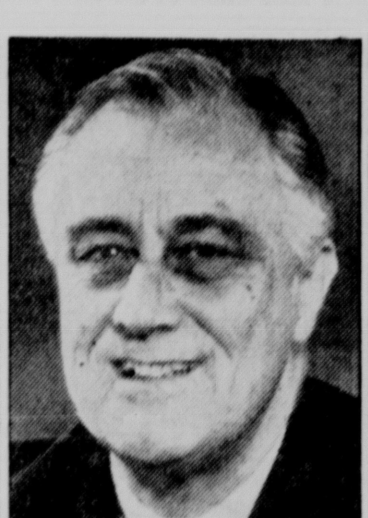
Another 20 years—two decades —20 years during which a nation reached sublime heights of idealism and then gave itself over completely to inevitable reaction of a postwar letdown—and it is 1932.

America's second largest city was not unlike all American cities in that year of 1932. Its treasury was bare; even in the darkened Loop the lights were turned off at one o'clock. Thousands of ragged, forlorn men existed as a result of the charity of long, hopeless bread lines in the city parks.



. . . In 1932, 20 years later, another Democrat, "FDR", hated and loved by his countrymen, was chosen.

This reporter left the great stadium where the convention was in progress in order to watch those bread lines grab an evening meal.

Another Roosevelt was the nominee of that Democratic convention—a gay, smiling man who had fought a fight with infantile paralysis and conquered in the struggle against a dread disease. Following his nomination, he flew to the convention to accept in an unprecedented move. He was sworn into office with the doors of every bank in this country closed. And on the Sabbath following his inauguration, he delivered his first fireside chat in which he repeated that America had nothing to fear but fear itself and during which he outlined the procedure for the reopening of the banks.

Wilson embarked upon domestic reform in the first four years in office—gave himself over entirely to international affairs throughout the last four years.

F.D.R 20 years later initiated a broad, sweeping program of domestic reforms — reforms admittedly long overdue—a farm program to equalize industrial and agricultural income, rural electrification, farm commodity loans, conservation of natural resources, regulation of the Securities Exchange and the New York stock market—more than a dozen far-reaching innovations in American life. It was not generally recognized but Franklin D. Roosevelt was a cautious isolationist in his early years in office, devoting all of his energies and time to domestic matters.

☆ ☆ ☆

Now it is 20 years later.

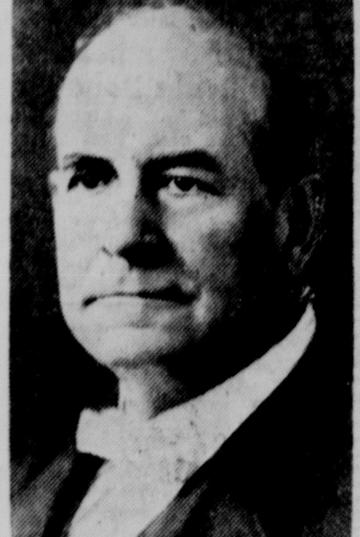
Gone are the giants of old.

In early July the Republican party, nominating Gen. Dwight Eisenhower as its candidate for President, for the fourth time turned its eyes away from and its back upon the Republican Old Guard, a powerful element within the party itself.

It was Wilson in 1912—20 years later, in 1932, it was Roosevelt. A week ago last Friday in this same city, it was Eisenhower whom the Republicans chose as a standard-bearer. It's impossible to gaze upon the milling crowds, fight ones' way through the crowded lobbies, or look out upon any avenue of this brooding city without recognizing that twice within slightly more than half a century in years which end in "2", national history has been written in capital letters.

Again this week—this July of 1952—the issues will be joined when the Democrats nominate their standard-bearer.

Which way do the stars point?



. . . Never able to gain the White House himself, the late W. J. Bryan was Woodrow Wilson's most powerful ally.

Jeary Auditorium Plan Approved By City Council

Original-Plan Theater, No Ice Rink, Is Agreed

Main Theater With Full Basement To East To Be Built; No Provision Is Made For Ice Skating Rink

By BILL DOBLER
(Star Staff Writer)

The so-called Jeary auditorium plan, a main theater as originally planned with a full basement to the east, has been approved by the City Council.

Several details, however, remain to be worked out before work on the plan actually begins. Councilman Clark Jearry and City Engineer D. L. Erickson are expected to wrap up one detail by Monday—a determination of who or what firm will prepare the plans and specifications.

It is expected the Associated Auditorium Architects will be retained but Jeary stated it is necessary to find out exactly what can be done and for how much.

Following that, the Council is expected to authorize the preparation of plans and specifications—a job expected to take about 60 days.

One-Half Block

Plans will be drawn with the proposed basement and theater for the basic proposal with certain details in regard to interior finish as alternates.

The plans make no provision for an ice skating rink.

The main theater under the Jeary plan will occupy nearly one-half block from 15th to 16th. It will have a total seating capacity of about 1,900.

The basement to the east will occupy the same space as had previously been provided for a sports arena. It will be so constructed as to facilitate erection of the area at a later date.

The plan was attacked by Mayor Vicor E. Anderson on several counts. He maintained the Auditorium Advisory Committee did not approve of the plan and that the structure would not be desirable in appearance.

'Building Limited'

In voting against the Jeary plan, the mayor stated he favored a combination theater and sports arena as submitted in one of two recommendations from the Advisory Committee.

According to Walter F. Wilson, spokesman for the Associated Architects, the basement structure would not facilitate much else than a sports arena on top of it. Any other one story structure could be built on it, he said, but it would not carry the load of a multi-story building.

If the arena is built later, he said, the basement would be ideal as a recreational center for the young people of the city. It could also be put to many other uses, he said.

Alternate Proposal

Specifications will also include an alternate proposal for construction of a little theater in the basement. The concrete slab over the basement will be used for parking.

It has been estimated the entire structure will cost nearly $2,000,000. The city has $2,500,000 on hand for building an auditorium.

In a resolution approving the plan, the Council paid special tribute to members of the Advisory Committee for their work, efforts and success in connection with the future auditorium.

The Council expressed "the gratitude of the City of Lincoln and of the members of this Council to T. B. Strain, Dr. Charles H. Arnold, Charles S. Elce and John K. Selleck, and to the families of the deceased members of the Committee." Deceased members are Frank Woods and James W. Kinsinger.

First Lutheran Announces Rev. Hall Successor

First Lutheran Church congregation members Friday night directed their board of deacons to extend a call to Rev. Emil Swanson, 44, of Brainard, Minn. to succeed Rev. Clarenc P. Hall here, who has accepted a call to the Lutheran Church of Gowrie, Ia.

Rev. Hall, pastor of First Lutheran Church in Lincoln for nearly 10 years, told The Star that Rev. Swanson served the Lutheran Church at Malmo, Neb. for four years and the Lutheran Church at Bertrand, Neb. for six years following his ordination in 1932.

Rev. Hall

Called to Lincoln in November, 1942, Rev. Hall has been active in state leadership of the Agustana Lutheran Church and served as president of the conference for nine years.

He served as chairman of the board of Immanuel Deaconess Institute in Omaha and, at present, is a member of the board of directors of Luther College at Wahoo.

Rev. Hall observed the 25th anniversary of his ordination at an annual synod meeting in Des Moines in June.

Wakefield Church

A native of Wausa, Neb., Rev. Hall attended North Park College, Augustana College at Rock Island, Ill., the Augustana Theological Seminary and Bible Institute, Minneapolis, Minn.

He was pastor of the Salem Lutheran Church at Wakefield before coming to Lincoln. Prior to that, he served the Augustana Lutheran Church at Fergus Falls, Minn.

Rev. Hall, who plans to leave Lincoln the last of August, is married and the father of four children; Mrs. Delores Kindschuh of Rock Island, Ill; Phil, who is with the Marines in Korea; Margaret, at home; and Danny, at home.

Born at Worthington, Minn., Rev. Swanson is a graduate of Gustavus Adolphus College, St. Peter, Minn. and Augustana Theological Seminary at Rock Island, Ill.

He has served the Lutheran Church at Brainard, Minn. for the past ten years. He is married and has two daughters.

Mrs. Swanson, has been active in women's missionary work and is department secretary of the Augustana Lutheran Women's Society.

Truckers Ask Reconsideration Of Rate Raise

The Nebraska Motor Carriers Association asked the Railway Commission to re-consider the truckers' request for an 18 per cent rate increase.

The carriers have asked, however, that no action be taken on the request for re-consideration until October.

By that time the Commission will have had time to study another quarterly report showing the effect of operation under the 11 per cent increase granted last March.

The Truckers originally asked for a 25 per cent rate increase. Pending a hearing, the Commission granted a temporary increase of 11 per cent, later making it permanent.

2,000 Books Donated

Subjects covered in the donation include sports, fiction, history, adventure, travel, hobbies, trade and art.

Supreme Court Upholds Howard Deed Decision

The State Supreme Court in a split decision upheld a deed which Emily Killian held to real estate belonging to her father, the late Charles Cain. Other children had attacked the deed. The court sustained the Howard County District Court.

Chief Justice Robert Simmons in writing the majority opinion held that the fact that a deed is not recorded until after the grantor's death is not sufficient to show non-delivery and that possession is prima facie evidence of delivery.

Fulbright Men Named

Otto G. Ruff, directors of veterans and adult education in Nebraska, and Dr. David L. Crawford, Crete, president of Doane College, have been reappointed to the committee on Fulbright scholarships in the state, Gov. Val Peterson announced Friday. Both will serve for three year terms. Ruff has been chairman of the committee for the past two years.

THESE LOOK LIKE CLOWNS, and that's just what they are: "Koshares," or clowns of the Koshare Tribe of La Junta, Colo. The tribe actually is composed of hard working and acting senior Boy Scouts. They thrilled and amused Lincolnites at Sherman Field Friday night. (Star Photo.)

Indians? No, Look Again—They're Scouts

By HILE GOODRICH
(Star Staff Writer)

"They're just a bunch of kids, but they're artists in their own right."

If applause is proof, that statement of J. F. "Buck" Burshears, scoutmaster of Explorer 2230 of La Junta, Colo., stands up in the minds of over 1,500 Lincolnites who saw his Koshare "Indians" perform Friday night at Sherman Field.

Traveling about the nation on tour, these Scouts lead a boy's dream life. And for La Junta youth this dream of Buck's has been a going concern for 20 years.

The bus they use is a story in itself—full of travel stickers, a multi-speaker radio system, an inter-communications system which can be used to talk to persons outside the bus as well as in, a special electric razor—and 34 Scouts and four leaders.

"The boys are pretty well busbroken after the travel necessary to put on forty shows a year," Buck told The Star, "and we generally make it a practice to sleep out."

Friday night the boys slept in the grandstand at Sherman Field.

Adults, too, might envy the Koshares in their travels since they have seen such stage plays as "Where's Charlie?" "Kiss Me Kate," and "South Pacific" on New York and Chicago stages.

"We try to give the boys an education," Buck said, "along with the fun of dancing, traveling and sightseeing. They work on merit badges on trips and we have our high school chemistry instructor right with us."

Money from the shows goes into the troop treasury for use on such projects as the troop Kiva—an Indian word meaning ceremonial chambers—a magnificent structure near the campus of La Junta Junior College.

THE CHIEF OF the Koshares . . . actually J. F. "Buck" Burshears, the troop's scoutmaster and an expert on all types of Indian lore. (Star Photo.)

A project which the troop will work on when it gets back to La Junta, Buck said, will be the construction of pit or sod houses of early Nebraska Indians. The boys gathered the data on their Lincoln trip.

"Theaters, museums, points of interest, we see them all—and swimming pools—sometimes I get to thinking we travel from pool to pool, instead of from show to show," Buck said. "These boys love to swim."

The dancing Scouts are popular even in Indian country. Rapid City, S. D., near a reservation, has invited the Koshares two years running because they "can't depend on real Indians for a good show."

The boys liked Lincoln, he said with sweat running down his face, except for the humidity.

And the Scouts' dances are not just juvenile antics. Buck has spent years, with his different generations of boys, minutely studying ceremonies and dances of various tribes in order to make each performance correct down to the last detail.

Five Mile Parade Ends Trail Days

GERING, Neb. (AP)—The 31st annual Oregon Trail Days celebration wound up Friday following a parade which some observers claimed was five miles long.

More than $1,000 in prizes were awarded to winners of the parade which took nearly an hour and a half to wind down Gering's main street.

Dedication ceremonies were held for a historical marker at the site of Ficklin Springs, east of Gering on newly marked U. S. Highway 26.

A later afternoon band concert, the final performance of the Oregon Trail Days Rodeo, street square dancing and a carnival put the finishing touches on the annual celebration.

Gale Gade 'Lucky' As Thrid Police Cycle Crash Victim

By JERRY WARREN
(Star Staff Writer)

If you want to be a motorcycle officer on the Lincoln Police Force, you should have past experience as a tumbler, circus aerialist or a daredevil trick rider.

Gale Gade

Gail Gade, 27, 921 E, the third motor officer involved in an accident in four days and the fourth in a little more than a month, proved this when he did a complete flip over the box of a pick-up truck after colliding with the vehicle Friday night.

Although Gade's accident was more spectacular than the others—witnesses said he reached a height of 10 feet above the truck and rolled and slid a distance of about 30 feet after he hit the street—he received only a bruise on his right arm and was back riding another motorcycle shortly after the collision.

Hit Truck

Capt. Orren L. Graves said Gade was riding south on 17th when he collided with the truck, driven by George N. Maser, 56, 103 G.

Gade said he applied his brakes when he saw the westbound Maser vehicle enter the intersection but the back wheel of the cycle skidded, forcing the machine into the truck. The force of the impact knocked Gade completely over the rear of the truck.

The officer's only comment after the mishap was, "Boy, was I lucky."

Not So Lucky

Two of his fellow motorcycle officers were not so lucky, however. Robert Rice, 29, 1548 So. 24th, said Wednesday he would probably be off the job about two weeks mending the cuts and bruises he received when his motor hit a chuck-hole and slid him along a gravel road Thursday.

John D. Kvech, 29, 133½ So. 16th, was injured Tuesday evening when a car turned into his machine between 15th and 16th on O. Five stitches were taken to close deep cuts on the fingers of his right hand.

First to "spill" in the latest skien of accidents was Officer Mel Green, 30, 518 No. 26th, who collided with a truck while enroute to investigate another accident June 9.

Local Carpenters Draw New Contracts Asking For $2.42

By ROY CAMPBELL
(Star Staff Writer)

Bernard Gradwohl, attorney representing the Lincoln building trade unions, said late Friday that contracts have been drawn and placed in the hands of several independent contractors.

These contracts, approved by the Carpenters Local 1055, contain the same provisions rejected by members of the Associated General Contractors. Gradwohl said the terms of the contracts had been tentatively approved by the independents.

The provisions call for a wage raise from $2.12½ an hour to $2.27½ with subsequent raises of a nickel each six months until Oct. 1, 1953, bringing the total wage to $2.42½, the same as carpenters in Omaha are receiving at present. Other provisions stipulate retroactive pay to the April 1 contract expiration date, double time for overtime, and a duration of the contract for two years.

Wage Appeal

One stipulation makes it possible for re-negotiating the contracts providing wage increases are granted to Omaha carpenters. Gradwohl said both the independent contractors and the unions would appeal to the Wage Stabilization Board for granting the wage increases should the contractors accept the new working agreement.

Earlier in the day, Carl Olson of Olson Construction Company, a member of the AGC, said he doubted if the unions and the independent contractors could qualify to negotiate with the WSB.

Gradwohl said no one in the area has been designated as an official representative before th Wage Board, and that the Board should decide a case on its merits, not the parties concerned.

Not Named

Gradwohl didn't indicate which independent companies were taking part in the negotiations, but said only that there are several being contacted. He said that contracts are being drawn up by the painters, which also will be placed in the hands of independent contractors for consideration.

Friday marked the fifth day of the strike against the Associated General Contractors. No hint has been evident of either of the two parties, the unions or the AGC, in reaching a compromise or indicating a meeting with the federal mediator in Omaha.

Government May Take Over Steel

Move Would Come Under Draft Law

WASHINGTON (AP)—A new federal move to seize part of the strike-bound steel industry under the draft law is reported under serious consideration at the White House.

At the same time, Price Stabilizer Ellis Arnall turned down a petition by the Weirton Steel Co. for a $5.50 price rise. A good deal of confusion arose over just how final that was.

Arnall said the limit under the Capehart amendment was $2.84 a ton, and said the steel companies were not entitled to any more.

Others Think Differently

But other government officials, in a higher echelon than Arnall, appeared entirely resigned to granting an increase around $5 when a settlement in the 47-day-old steel strike is finally reached.

Reports of impending White House action to take over some steel mills under the 1948 selective Service Act persisted without official denial.

The act permits seizure under certain emergency conditions.

'U. S. Can't Wait'

A high government official, commenting on possible seizure action, put it this way:

"The situation is so desperate that we must do something."

This official, who refused use of his name, said the Justice Department was drawing up legal papers as a basis for seizing a small portion of the industry under the 1948 act.

It would apply to mills producing special steel for such defense items as guns, bullets, tanks, etc. Workers in the affected plants presumably would be barred from striking against the government as the temporary operator of the mills.

Dosek Seeking National Committeeman Position

Edward A. Dosek, Lincoln insurance man, has submitted his name to Nebraska Democratic County chairmen for consideration as national committeeman.

The national committeeman will be elected at the State Democratic Convention in Grand Island the second week in August.

In his announcement, Dosek described the Republicans as the "party that has fought almost every progressive measure that has been adopted for the benefit of the American citizens over the past 20 years."

$71,009 Bid Of Abel Low On Union Work

The Abel Construction Company has submitted the low bid of $71,009 for runway extension and resurfacing at Union Airport.

Dobson Bros. Construction Company submitted a figure of $76,315. Specifications call for a 700 foot extension to the existing 1,800 foot northwest-southeast runway and the resurfacing of the 1,645 foot nohtr-south runway.

Minor work will be done on taxiways and parking aprons. Specifications call for work to begin by July 21 and completion by Nov. 21.

The contract will be awarded following City Council signing of a lease, probably Monday, with E. J. Sias for use of the airport. The airport is to be used by commercial aircraft excluded from the Municipal Airport after its reactivation by the Air Force.

The city's lease of Union will be for two years with an eight year renewal option.

Federal Procedures Urged In Hog Disease Battle

Anderson Says Spread Halted Here

By ARCH DONOVAN
(Star Staff Writer)

Livestock sanitary officials from 14 states with outbreaks of vesicular exanthema meeting in Washington agreed upon uniform procedures for eradicating the disease and called upon Secretary of Agriculture Charles F. Brannan to declare an emergency and take steps to eradicate that disease.

Dr. E. P. Anderson of Lincoln was chairman of the committee that prepared the uniform procedure to be followed in every state to deal with the fast spreading disease in swine which the committee recognized as being caused and disseminated primarily through feeding of raw cabbage.

Returning Friday morning, Dr. Anderson said that under the plan Nebraska will continue to keep under quarantine the approximately 12,000 hogs in lots where the disease has been found until such time as the federal government issues regulation for uniform action in all states in eradicate the disease.

Dr. Anderson explained that it will be necessary for procedures to be worked out with the packing industry for handling or disposition of carcasses of infected animals from nearby states for slaughter and disposition under federal inspection.

"The result," Dr. Anderson said, "is that the disease was quickly eradicated in those states after the first outbreak. With superior slaughter facilities in Nebraska, I would not want to ask California to take over the job for Nebraska," he continued.

Of the 48 outbreaks that have been thoroughly investigated and reported upon at the Washington meeting, Dr. Anderson said all but two definitely came from feeding raw cabbage or were spread from such places.

Sanitary Steps

The sanitary officers recommended that all carcasses be processed under present regulations of the federal bureau of animal industry, boned and passed on for cooking and that the carcasses be consigned for tankage.

Live hogs now under quarantine because of vesicular exanthema would be subject to antemortem inspection as usual under federal inspection and handled in accordance with the three proposals for carcasses.

Introduction of additional swine on infected premises would be prohibited until it has been depopulated and thoroughly cleaned and disinfected through the use of a 4 per cent sodium carbonate.

In restocking swine could only be introduced at the rate of 2 to 5 per cent of capacity of the plant for the first three weeks and continue at this rate with inspections prior to each new addition of swine.

Dr. Anderson said that through co-operation of sale ring operators and truckers in carrying out disinfecting regulations the spread of the disease has been halted in the state and that present regulations will continue until superseded by federal regulations.

Fremont Man Will Head Fire Fighters

FREMONT, Neb. (AP) — Armand Larsen of Fremont is the new president of the Nebraska Association of Fire Fighters.

Other officers of the association, named at a convention here this week are George F. Drake, Lincoln, vice president, and Warren Kensinger, Grand Island, reelected secretary.

The association went on record in favor of retaining a no-strike clause in the constitution of the international association, which meets in Seattle Aug. 10-14. Larsen will be a delegate to that convention.

Court Reporters Will Hold Meet At Fremont

FREMONT, Neb. (AP) — District court reporters from Nebraska will hold their annual business meeting in Fremont Saturday.

Derrold McCardle of Fremont, who is making arrangements for the meeting, said that between 40 and 50 reporters and their wives are expected.

The reporters plan to take the national shorthand reporters proficiency test. Tom Dunbar of Fremont is president of the association.

Rains Deliver 'One-Two Punch' To Nebraska's Wheat Harvest

By The Associated Press

Recurring rains in Nebraska's wheat belt have dealt the harvest a one-two punch, driving the combines from the field and sending the moisture content of the wheat rocketing.

Reports from northwest Nebraska said some wheat in the Hemingford area showed as much as 19 per cent moisture—way too much for storage of wheat.

In central Nebraska came reports of 13 to 16 per cent moisture in wheat brought to elevators.

Combining was resumed in the Chardon area with the harvest about at the half-way mark. Yields continued to look good in this area. Gus Benthack was reported to be getting an average of 32 bushels of wheat on over 200 acres.

Dawes Harvest Delayed

Harvesting of Dawes County's table country has been delayed because the fields still are green.

The Dawes County average yield so far is between 25 and 30 bushels per acre, although there are some reports of 15 bushel wheat.

At Sidney a prediction of a 4,250,000 bushel wheat crop from Cheyenne County was made Friday. The prediction was made by the Sidney Telegraph following an area-by-area survey of the wheat areas. With favorable weather the harvest, expected to average about 18 bushels per acre, should be completed in a week.

Wet fields still plagued the Box Butte County harvest and delays brought the danger of an exodus of transient combine crews which could leave the country short of labor to finish up the harvest.

Wheat samples in Alliance were testing about 14 per cent, and as a result many farmers held off cutting.

Around Kearney in central Nebraska the harvest was about 90 per cent complete, but soft, wet fields slowed up the harvesting. What wheat came in was a little high in moisture content, and the test of the wheat was down about a pound as a result.

Rites On Monday For York Youth; Drowning Victim

YORK, Neb.—(Lincoln Star Special) — Funeral services for David Leroy Rosenquist, 19-year-old drowning victim, will be held at 10 a.m. Monday at St. Joseph's Church here.

The son of Mrs. M. E. Rosenquist of York, he lost his life as the result of an injury suffered while swimming at Hemingford. He dived into the shallow water at the south end of Lake Felton Dam in the Niobrara River and suffered a sheared second cervical vertebra of the spine, according to an attending physician.

Young Rosenquist had been working with a combine crew this summer and left York just last Monday morning for western Nebraska.

Born in Fillmore County, he lived on a farm near Central City prior to moving with his family to York in 1949. He played football and basketball at both Central City and York, graduating with the 1949 York High School class.

In addition to his mother he is survived by four brothers, Eugene of York, Gerald, with the U.S. Marines, and William and Roland, both in the U.S. Navy. His father, Maynard E., died of a heart attack several years ago.

County 4-H Group Will Tour South Central Counties

The third annual tour for Lancaster 4-H Soil Conservation members will be Aug. 19 and 20, with stops slated in Buffalo, Dawson, Harlan and Webster counties, County Extension Agent V. H. Peterson announced.

The trip, by chartered bus, is sponsored by the Lancaster Soil Conservation District, Lincoln Junior Chamber of Commerce and the Lancaster County Extension Service.

Various types of agricultural projects will be shown to the group, including the Harlan County Dam and the Rosemont experimental farm. In previous years, the group visited the sand hills and Iowa.

Lodgepole Boy Fatally Hurt

SIDNEY, Neb. (AP)—Danny Ray Brestel, 8-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Brestel of Lodgepole died Thursday night shortly after struck by a pickup truck on a Deuel County road.

The Nebraska Safety Patrol said the boy was dead on arrival at a Sidney hospital. He had an abdominal injury.

The accident occurred 4½ miles northeast of Lodgepole. The patrol said the boy evidently was standing at the side of the road watching some combines in a field, and then turned and ran across the road. Kenneth French, Haskell, Okla., driver of the pickup truck, swerved to avoid hitting the little boy and upset the truck as he did so, but the left rear part of the truck struck the boy and hurled him into the ditch.

The boy's death was the 158th traffic fatality this year compared with 145 at this time last year.

Omahan To Head State Group Of Woman's Benefit

NORTH PLATTE, Neb. (AP)—The Nebraska Woman's Benefit Association, which concluded its annual meeting with a luncheon here, will meet next year in Omaha.

Mrs. Dorothy Winter of Omaha was elected president of the group to succeeed Mrs. Bessie Moore, North Platte.

Also named to association offices in an election during the two-day meeting were Mrs. Isabella Jones, Columbus, vice president; Miss Barbara McEvoy, North Platte, musician; Mrs. Ruby Loop, Grand Island, chaplain; Mrs. Minnie Thanel, Brady, and Mrs. Goldie Blede, Brady, sergeant-at-arms.

A guest speaker was Mrs. Anna McCullough of Brady, a member of the association for 57 years. Mrs. Anna Pizer, mother of state Senator Harry Pizer of North Platte, a member for 50 years, was honored at a banquet.

Over 2,500 Attend Festival At Elgin

Lincoln's Sowers, the goodwill organization of the Chamber of Commerce, entertained and were entertained at the annual Free Festival in Elgin. More than 2,500 persons attended the event.

The 43 Sowers were part of the afternoon parade with clowns Harold Schwartz and Ron Dodd handing out candy and favors to the spectators.

Participating in the Elgin vaudeville show, which was free to the public, were Lincolnites Bill Morton, the magician, and the Mimic Macs.

Ed Schultz, president of the Sowers, entertained the group and the members of the Elgin Commercial Club at a dinner at his farm prior to the show.

Matthews Not Returning For Demo Meeting

Francis P. Matthews, United States ambassador to Ireland, announced Friday that he will be unable to go to Chicago to attend the Democratic national convention as head of the Nebraska delegation. He was elected to the chairman post at a caucus last week.

Willard Townsend, a delegate from Lincoln, said that he was "surprised" that Matthews will not attend as it had been indicated to the delegates that he planned to be in Chicago.

He said that he knew Matthews recently suffered a slight illness although the reason given by Matthews for not attending was, "Unfortunately, my duties as ambassador here just now are urgent and I shall not be able to go to the convention."

The Nebraska delegation has been called to caucus in Chicago Sunday night and Townsend expressed the opinion that a new chairman would be selected at that time.

Riley First Alternate

At the caucus last week, Townsend said, it was agreed to follow national convention rules and have alternates serve in the order in which they were selected at the primary. This would make Hugh B. Riley, Fairbury, the first alternate to serve for Matthews.

Chirs Larson, Decatur, received the second largest vote and would become the next first alternate followed by Mrs. Essie Davis, Hyannis, and Fred Deutsch, Norfolk.

In Fairbury, Riley said Friday he had backed Senator Robert S. Kerr of Oklahoma in the Nebraska primary and, "at the moment," is "inclined toward him, though not necessarily committed to him."

Riley added that no effort had been made to get him to commit himself to any of the candidates.

The Fairbury man said he had "a high regard for him (Kerr) personally" and as things stand now, would probably vote for Kerr on the first ballot.

With Riley taking the place of Matthews, on the basis of the most recent Associated Press check, the delegation would give five first ballot votes to Senator Estes Kefauver, four to Kerr and one to Senator Richard Russell with two uncommitted.

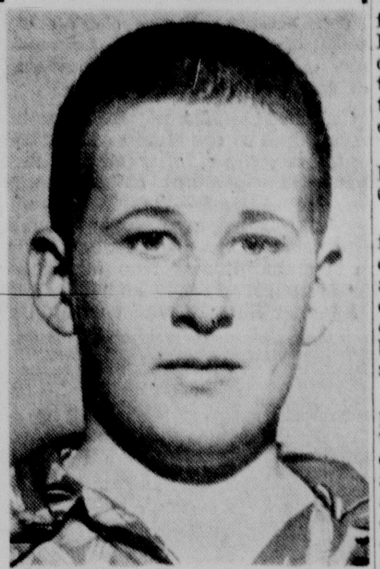
Meet STAR Carrier Kenneth Borrett



Kenneth, who prefers to be called Kit, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Borrett, 3260 Randolph. He is in the sixth grade at Randolph School.

Kit is having a wonderful vacation—he has spent a week at Camp Cedars and a week at Camp Sheldon and is looking forward to a week in Colorado this month.

He is a member of Boy Scout Troop 27 and his hobby is collecting small model dogs. Football ranks as his favorite sport. Becoming a rancher is Kit's ambition. He attends Sunday School and church at First-Plymouth Congregational Church.

With his carrier route profits of $29 per month, Kit buys some of his own clothes, has his own spending money and has a savings account. Mr. and Mrs. Borrett feel that carrying a Star Route has helped Kit in many ways by teaching him to meet the public, how to handle money, and promptness and courtesy. It is very good training for a growing boy.

Boys interested in having a Lincoln Star Route should apply at The Star office, 926 P. If you live outside Lincoln, write to The Lincoln Star, Lincoln 1, Neb., about having a route in your home town.

Rites At Juniata Sunday For Miss Emma Hoover

Funeral services for Miss Emma Hoover, 77, 403 So. 26th will be at 7:30 p.m. Saturday at Umbergers, Dr. Harold Sandall officiating. Burial will be Sunday at Juaniata.

Miss Hoover, a retired secretary, died Friday.

Born near Plum Creek, she lived in Juniata before moving to Lin-Lincoln years ago. Before she retired 30 years ago she worked for the Security Mutual Life Insurance Company and the Lincoln Journal.

She was a member of the Grace Methodist Church and the Grace Methodist Service Guild.

Surviving is a brother, Harry, Lincoln.

Court Excludes Officers From Bankers Life Retirement Plan

By ARCH DONOVAN
(Star Staff Writer)

Retirement plans set up in 1945 for salaried employes of the Bankers Life Insurance Company of Nebraska, Lincoln, were partially rejected in a suit challenging their legality brought by a group of policy holrers.

The opinion was handed down Friday by the Nebraska Supreme Court.

The court held that so far as officers of the company are concerned, the plan is "unauthorized and invalid." This reverses a Lancaster County District Court decision and approval of the plan by the State Department of Insurance.

"The adoption of the retirement plan by the board of directors of the company and the ratification of it by the policyholders at the annual meeting were in compliance with the most exacting requirements of valid and effective corporate action," the court opinion said.

Not Detrimental

"The retirement plan is advantageous to the employes who qualify for its benefits and experience shows it was not detrimental to the company or policyholders." It was then pointed out that since its adoption, increases in insurance written is $60,000,000 and an annual increase in income of $1,100,000 with assets increasing $9,200,000 has been realized.

The opinion gives credit to the retirement plan as contributing to the business increase.

But the Court found that any provision "intended to bring any officer of the company within the coverage or benefits of the plan is and has been since the adoption of it, invalid and such provision is vacated and annulled."

The company and officers are required to return to the company and the proper fund all money and assets and money set aside or expended because of the inclusion of the officers in the plan.

More than $594,000 has been placed in the retirement fund since it has been at issue. Under the ruling, about $148,000 credited to the 208 employes will continue in force. But approximately $446,000 credited in the fund to the 12 officers must be returned to other funds.

The Court held "officers of a domestic insurance company are not employes" within the meaning of statutes authorizing the company to establish a retirement plan.

The filing of a motion for rehearing is under consideration by the company. Spokesmen pointed out that the State Insurance Department approved retirement plans including officers for six other Nebraska insurance firms from 1945 to 1950.

Not Questioned

It is pointed out that the integrity of the trustees and officers was not questioned by the court.

The retirement fund was set up about the time the Company changed from a stock company to a mutual company.

The suit challenging the validity of the retirement plan was brought by Charles E. Ledwith and others.

The Lancaster County District Court was instructed to enter a decree in accordance with the Supreme Court's decision.

Ledwith said that the effect of Friday's decision is that under present state law, officers of domestic insurance companies in Nebraska cannot be made beneficiaries of a retirement plan set up by the company in which they hold office.

The only remedy, Ledwith said, is for the Legislature to change the law.

Licenses Denied

Appeal of Della M. Sielaff, Grand Island, from denial of a liquor license by the City Council resulted in a denial by the State Liquor Commission, they announced.

Protests were also upheld in the application of Charles Guss, Omaha, to open a package liquor store.

Some Unreasonable Wishes?

By J. E. LAWRENCE

Off for Chicago to observe another national convention in action, there have been many questions tossed in this direction relative to the probable Democratic presidential nominee.

★

The questions could be flattering but there can be little pride in any honest answer to them. This editor does not pose as a prophet or as the son of a prophet. He recognizes that rarely in recent years has there been more confusion about the course of a convention in selecting a standard-bearer for the November presidential election than in the gathering which gets under way in Chicago next Monday. We are convinced that a public, for the first time seeing a convention in action, has had its fill of talk. Unless memory is faulty, there were 19 formally scheduled addresses at the Republican National convention earlier in the month. Scores more contributed to the tumult, and so many hundreds of thousands of words breathed through the microphone that the air lanes quivered, possibly through sheer weakness.

★

There is in progress at this time, possibly unnoted, some historic political developments. The convention system itself as a mechanism for nomination of party standard-bearers is on trial. Virtually everything in America is being streamlined to fit the present national mood, the convention being one of the last to yield. Near the close of the Republican gathering, a spokesman for a group of young men, young Republicans, came to the microphone and offered a resolution memorializing Congress to establish a system of uniform presidential primaries among the 48 states. That action may have gone unheeded by most of the millions listening in or looking on. But Permanent Chairman Joe Martin, who said that this was his last appearance in the role, made very short shrift of it. All resolutions, he announced without smile, must be referred to the resolutions committee, which 48 hours earlier had presented its report to the convention, its labors completed. And there the strong, young, fresh voices within Republican ranks may be sure that their child will slumber peacefully unless Congress upon its own steam moves to act.

★

There has not been a great deal of change in the convention machinery in a hundred years of a swift century. The Democrats did abolish the two-thirds rule. For a brief time earlier this month, the Republicans teetered perilously near to adopting it in modified form in connection with convention deliberations.

★

We are inclined to believe that the two-party system would be strengthened by shorter conventions—certainly it would benefit by more businesslike conventions. That demand for shortened sessions runs contrary to the party pocketbook interest. Every four years a convention city digs deep into its pocket to raise funds for the purpose of defraying the costs of the convention, which represent in all instances a somewhat impressive figure. In exchange, the two parties give assurance to the host city or cities that the convention will run a certain number of days, in this instance, a full three days and nights of sessions.

★

We hope, and experience suggests it will be well to cross one's fingers, that the impending Democratic National Convention will be brief, businesslike, and dignified. Approximately four years ago we were pulling out of Chicago for Philadelphia. A young chap came over to where we were seated to visit. He was a son of the late John Sharp Williams of Mississippi, a fiery southerner, a chip off the old block, and at that time he outlined Mississippi's and Alabama's position on the controversial issue of the civil rights plan. Again it is boiling. It, even more than the selection of a nominee, could inject more bitterness into the convention which opens Monday.

★

Nebraskans know young Estes Kefauver since he campaigned vigorously here. They are familiar with Bob Kerr's features and his voice. They perhaps have less of personal contact to fall back upon in the case of Georgia's Russell or Gov. Stevenson of Illinois. They know Averell Harriman largely through association of the name with important assignments in the field of foreign affairs. It could be any one of the five—or it could be someone less active in pre-convention activities. And out of this month of July could come the long anticipated realignment of the two major parties along possibly more acceptable lines than now exist. That realignment would find conservative fighting shoulder to shoulder with conservative—and liberal marching into battle with liberal. As it is today, both parties appear to be split wide open.

Love Of Homeland

Fortunate is the state whose younger generations reveal pride and faith in their homeland.

The cornerstone of the new Nebraska State Historical Society building now in the course of construction was put in its proper place in ceremonies last Wednesday afternoon. Quite by accident and without previous plan, an unusual incident took place earlier Wednesday.

In the morning a bright-eyed, intelligent youngster of 12 years, Frank-Edward Gillen, called on the editor to take out a life membership in the Nebraska State Historical Society. Not only did he take out a life membership for himself, but also for his mother and one for his father. He earned the money himself.

He's the youngest member of the society.

Shortly—actually in a matter of less than 24 months—this region which now bears the proud name of Nebraska will observe the one-hundredth anniversary of territorial status. There were 28,000 men, women and children in Nebraska when the territory was admitted to the Union 13 years later. Today more than 1¼ million people look out upon impressive cities and towns, modern farm homes and flourishing industries.

That is the good story which invariably inspires a sense of well-being. Into all of this building of a state has gone a heap of planning and years of hard work. The third, fourth and fifth generations of pioneers can well take pride in the accomplishments of their forebears.

A Long Look At A Lobby

A step toward clearing up one of the controversial mysteries of Washington was taken late this week when the State Department requested the Department of Justice to investigate documents indicating that the "China Lobby" attempted to influence American government officials.

The "China Lobby" has been batted back and forth in the national capital and in numerous publications. It has been strongly attacked as far more influential than any of the other groups which are alleged to have altered the course of official United States policies in the Far East. It has been stoutly defended, on the other hand, by those who believe that the "China Lobby" does not even exist, and that Nationalist Chinese influence on the State Department has been nil.

The latter belief, despite the denials and the scoffings, does not seem to bear the weight of examination. Sen. Wayne Morse, maverick Republican from Oregon, is leading the fight to investigate the supporters of Chiang Kai-shek who actively engage in their pursuits in Washington. This has not made the energetic Morse, already as popular as foot-and-mouth disease among some of his political brothers, any more likable to his colleagues. But Morse insists upon plodding ahead, presenting documented proof that the "China Lobby" not only exists, but that it has brought tremendous pressure to bear upon officials in charge of drawing up and carrying out policies.

Chinese Ambassador Wellington Koo declared that he "would welcome an investigation," which makes it almost unanimous. Now let's see what this lobby has done, who is behind it, and what effect it has had on administration and opposition policies.

Editorial Of The Day

The Tariff Battle

From The Manchester (England) Guardian

A recommendation on the request of three large American watch manufacturers for increased import duties on watches and watch movements has been sent to the White House.

Mr. Truman now has 60 days in which to decide what to do. The Swiss watch industry, which is heavily dependent on the American market, is naturally indignant. It points out that the three American firms which have pressed for protection are in fact working to capacity and that they can meet at most one-third of the American demand for watches.

Out of ten million watches sold every year in the United States about 70 per cent contain Swiss movements or are entirely Swiss-made. Most American firms import the movements and make only the cases, dials, and accessories. The Swiss estimate that out of every dollar spent on a watch with a Swiss movement eighty-five cents remains in the United States as wages, trading profits, taxes, and so on.

Any increase of import duty would hit Swiss trade in a vulnerable spot. Watches are one of the most important products of Switzerland. Ninety-five per cent of the industry's output is exported and about one-third goes to the United States. Watches and watch movements pay for more than half the Swiss imports from the United States, among which are wheat, cotton, and food products, as well as cars and many other consumer goods. The Swiss watch industry is urging the Government to cut imports from the United States if the tariff is raised. People are shocked by the contrast between American preaching and American practice. They cannot understand why a country should give away vast sums of money to meet other countries' dollar shortage and yet obstruct their efforts to earn dollars by the normal ways of trade.

The only answer that can be made is that the present protectionist fever is a slight setback after 18 years of steady recovery from the madness that struck America in 1930. It may well be that a really shocking decision like the doubling of the duty on watch movements, and a sharp retaliation by Switzerland, is the sort of event needed to awaken the many sensible groups in the United States to the need for bold resistance against reaction.

There is still good reason to hope that the reversal of America's liberal economic policy will be short-lived. It will do quite enough damage to international relations even if it lasts only till a new administration takes over.

'Come Up And See Me'

That buxom symbol of a departed, era, Mae West, finally agreed to honor the life jacket named after her. She was the guest of honor at a demonstration of the new improved "Mae West" life jacket at a Navy submarine base.

She says she consented because "there's nothing like saving a good man."

And, it may be added, there is still nothing quite like that old gal, Mae West.

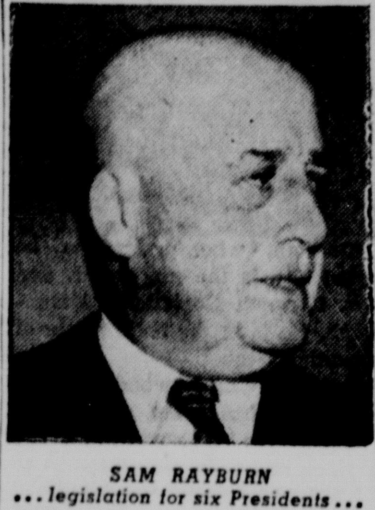
Popular Sam Rayburn A Reluctant Candidate

(Ed. Note—The Pearson diagnosis of candidates in the wide-open Democratic race continues today with the spotlight on Sam Rayburn.)

CHICAGO—If a popularity vote were taken in the House of Representatives, the winner among the Democrats—perhaps even among the Republicans—would be an egg-bald gentleman from Texas who presides over the House with an iron hand, and who is affectionately referred to as "Sam."

Speaker Sam Rayburn would be the ideal candidate for the Democratic ticket today if he were 10 years younger. Just past his 70th birthday, however, Sam is not an active candidate, though if his friends had their way, he would be.



SAM RAYBURN
...legislation for six Presidents...

It has now been almost 40 years since Sam came up from the Texas prairies to sit in Congress. That was in 1913, during the administration of Woodrow Wilson. Sam has seen two great wars since then. He has weathered the Republican victories that swept many of his Democratic colleagues out of office. He has helped write legislation for six different presidents.

And through it all he has still kept his integrity, his idealism, and his sense of humor.

☆ ☆ ☆

Most people have forgotten it, but Sam Rayburn was responsible for writing most of the legislative cornerstone of the New Deal—the laws which no Republicans are likely to wipe off the books. As chairman of the Interstate Commerce Committee, it was Sam's job to push through the Truth-in-Securities Act and the Securities and Exchange Commission which cleaned up Wall Street; the Holding Corporation Act which broke up some of the big utility combines; plus rural electrification, and the Federal Communications Act.

Few men in the past century can equal that record.

Friends who have talked to "Mr. Democrat" about running for President don't get much encouragement. On the contrary, Sam talks seriously of retiring from Congress altogether.

His chief dream is to build a library in his home town, Bonham, Tex. He has already raised part of the money for the project, has collected an old mantelpiece from the White House when it was remodeled, and gathered together an assortment of gavels he used in presiding over joint sessions of Congress when addressed by Queen Elizabeth, Winston Churchill, Gen. MacArthur, Gen. Eisenhower, and others.

Sam has also made arrangements to take his congressional desk back home from Washington, and wants to set up an exact replica of his speaker's office. There, surrounded by the laws which he helped to write, the hearings he has held, and the records of the debates he has argued, Sam wants to sit and visit with the people he loves, and enjoy life.

Ike's Remarks On France

A number of readers have queried me as to what Gen. Eisenhower actually said about atheism in France and the disintegration of the French moral fiber. They have also asked about the propriety of publishing his remarks, for fear it would play into Communist hands.

The answer to question No. 1 is that the general, in talking to the press and a group of delegates at Chicago on July 8, did criticize France for its religious and moral attitude. The newspapers did not invent his remarks. He volunteered them.

The answer to question No. 2 is that there wasn't the remotest chance of hushing up the general's statement, since it was cabled to France by the press associations and by French newsmen within a matter of minutes. It was published in all the French newspapers the same day.

For instance, here is the "bulletin" which International News Service cabled to France:

"Gen. Eisenhower said today France has 'gone astray' morally and declared one of the reasons is that the French brag that they are 50 per cent agnostic or atheist.

He asserted France has reached the point where the moral fiber disintegrates, and added:

" 'One reason France has gone astray is that they brag that they are 50 per cent agnostic or atheist.' "

Other cabled dispatches to France were similar.

Those who expressed the view that Eisenhower's statement should have been suppressed or not commented upon apparently forget two things:

1—It is not possible for the United States any longer to live ostrichlike with our heads in the sand. As the most powerful country in the world, what our leaders do or say is cabled immediately to every part of the world.

2—One of the most important reasons for an election campaign is to gauge and size-up the candidate. To do that it is necessary to know what he says, and what his judgment is regarding any and every important situation.

President Truman has been continually criticized, and rightly so, for making off-the-cuff statements which affect our foreign relations. If Eisenhower is addicted to the same habit, then the American public have a right to know it—in advance.

☆ ☆ ☆

The leaders of the French government today belong to the Catholic group. The statement that 50 per cent of France is agnostic or atheistic will be construed by the enemies of the Church as a reflection on the Church, since France is officially a Catholic country.

But perhaps equally important, the Catholic group must have the co-operation of the moderate, non-Communist Socialists and leftists in order to stay in power. On one side they face the Communists, on the other side the De Gaullists. Therefore, the present Catholic leaders must have the support of the non-Communist left, which is probably the group Eisenhower meant to criticize.

These are some of the political niceties so important in France today which the general, having lived for more than a year in France, presumably should know, and certainly must be able to deal with if he is to be an efficient President of the United States.

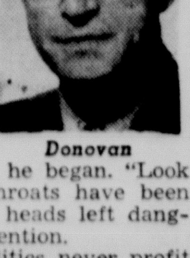
ARCH DONOVAN

In Step With The Sower

ONE of the elder statesmen under the Capitol dome on whose conversations the Sower likes to listen in, because there is substance to his remarks rather than a "beating of the gums," was discussing the recent Republican convention.



Donovan

"There is no gratitude in politics and anyone seeking it as a career should armor plate his back to turn aside the sharp knives that will be aimed at it," he began. "Look at how many throats have been slashed and the heads left dangling at this convention.

"People in politics never profit through experience," he continued, "and even after 20 years the Democrats keep right on giving aid and comfort to their Republican enemies."

☆ ☆ ☆

HE pointed out that a Democratic administration was responsible for successively promoting a lieutenant colonel up to the rank of five star general only to have him use the popularity and the honors they had made possible for him as a stepping stone to leadership of the opposition party.

From the obscurity of training a Philippine army, they recalled Gen. MacArthur to active service and made him chief of the Pacific forces and in turn he keynoted the convention drive against them, he continued his recitation.

The nation gives credit to both men for a job well done, but I believe few will deny that there were others of equal military ability who would have done equally as well and would have had political views coinciding with the administration, he said, pointing out Gen. Marshall as an example.

THE Capitol sage, who admitted that he is affiliated with the Republican party, continued to point out examples of honors bestowed upon those who accepted with no thought of gratitude to the donors.

"Do you think that in all the United States no Democrat could have been found with administrative ability sufficient to have filled the posts occupied in Germany and Greece by former Governor Dwight Griswold?" he was heard to ask as he pointed out that Griswold is now an opposition candidate for the U. S. Senate.

He insisted that somewhere in the Democratic party there must have been men meeting the engineering qualifications of Arthur A. Dobson of Lincoln, who accompanied Griswold to Greece, but remained a wheel-horse in the GOP.

☆ ☆ ☆

"MAYBE it makes our country strong, even though our political parties are sapped of their life blood, when honors are given to the opposition as well as the faithful," he continued. "Can you imagine Russia giving high posts to non-members of the Communist party?

"But, even as a Republican, I could not fathom the thinking of those who damned the administration and at the same time was honoring those who administered the policies of the same administration."

He continued pointing out examples of how the bi-partisan policies of the Roosevelt and Truman administrations did little to gain them supporters even though a popular campaign cry has been that tax dollars distributed by the administration kept them in power in the belief that you shouldn't kill "Santa Claus."

"Politics is certainly funny," his companion commented, calling attention to the fact that "Mr. Republican" got it "where the chicken got the axe."

A THOUGHT FOR THE SABBATH

Stories Of Famous Hymns

O MASTER, LET ME WALK WITH THEE

O Master let me walk with Thee
In lowly paths of service free;
Tell me Thy secret, help me bear
The strain of toil, the fret of care.

Help me the slow of heart to move
By some clear, winning word of love;
Teach me the wayward feet to stay
And guide them in the homeward way.

Teach me Thy patience: still with Thee
In closer, dearer company,
In work that keeps faith sweet and
strong,
In trust that triumphs over wrong.

In hope that sends a shining ray
Far down the future's broadening way;
In peace that only Thou canst give,
With thee, O Master, let me live.

By HORACE B. POWELL

One of America's best-known clergymen in the last years of the 19th century was Washington Gladden. For more than 50 years his sermons and writings attracted wide attention. Today he is best remembered for the beautiful hymn-poem, reproduced above, which is still popular in churches of many religious denominations.

Gladden was born in Pottsgrove, Pa., in 1836 and served his first pastorate in a Congregational Church in Brooklyn, N. Y., following his graduation from Williams College in 1859. In 1882 he moved to Columbus, O., where — for 32 years — he gave the best part of his life to Christian service in a second pastorate.

The young preacher, interested in social service, believed that the Christian church had a call to lift humanity, not only spiritually and morally, but also socially and economically. His ideals were reflected in his sermons and lectures, as well as in his writings. His magnificent hymn, "O Master, Let Me Walk With Thee," was written in 1879 in an hour of inspiration and was, in part at least, an answer to some of his contemporaries who criticized him for what they considered liberal religious views.

Dr. Gladden at one time was a member of the editorial staff of the New York Independent. He served also as editor of Sunday Afternoon, a weekly magazine, and it was in this periodical that his hymn first appeared.

Water Board Chairman

Lincoln, Neb.

To the editor of the Lincoln Star: Thanks a million for the fine support you have given me and the other men starting off this new water board. We will need your support. These men have reluctantly accepted this job the same as I have. We are all busy. I accepted because I feel as you did in pointing it up some little time ago—it needs attention.

We are going to analyze from every angle all these problems and try to come to a solution that will assure Lincoln of continued good water and plenty of it. We will need the newspaper's help in selling whatever program these men decide on as well as the cooperation of all the people in our city. In a very short time, I feel we will have a program to submit that will meet with your approval.

Write-In For Taft

Papillion, Neb.

To the editor of The Lincoln Star: For the fourth consecutive time a pretended Republican National Convention has sold the party and the American people down the river. Literally swept off its feet by wild, groundless charges concocted by the Dewey, Stassen, Warren, Fine, Lodge and Brownell wrecking crew, that Sen. Taft had stolen the southern Eisenhower delegates, transformed the convention into a ranting, howling mob which, with no evidence whatever before it and contrary to all precedent, ruthlessly overthrew the finding and decisions of its own tribunals and seated the Eisenhower delegates, elected by Democrats illegally voting in the Republican primaries. This episode finds no parallel in the record of the Republican party.

Naturally the nomination of Eisenhower pleased the Democrats for many reasons, particularly because of the weakness and inexperience of the candidate who has not satisfactorily identified himself as either a Republican or Democrat but was lured to the Republican camp by the millions of dollars the money kings and big industrialists made available to buy the presidency for a candidate willing and anxious to swallow their bait, adopt their policies and run on a platform of meaningless words.

Again the people have been betrayed, denied the right of honest representation and are now insulted with proffers of conciliation. The first thought is always conciliation.

Eisenhower heard Sen. Taft reviled, villified and charged with unpardonable political crimes and misdemeanors, without offering the slightest protest. But with victory achieved he hastened "to pay his respects to a great American." Little did William Howard Taft dream that his appointment of young Eisenhower to West Point would deprive his own son of the presidency of the United States.

Tom Dewey and Val Peterson, still smarting under the sting of personal defeat, are exultant—but will labor in vain to convince an outraged electorate that the success of their trickery reflects the wishes of the American people.

At the November election, every ballot must contain a space in which the voter may write the name of Robert A. Taft for President as a reaffirmation of their allegiance to a truly great American, and as a vindication of their own self-respect.

Chemical Fluorides

Lincoln, Neb.

To the editor of The Lincoln Star: Since the report has come out in "Prevention Magazine" from the fluoridated areas of longest standing that blood tests show three times as much fluorine as normally and other tests which are definitely not good concerning the dangers to expectant mothers (as reported by Dr. A. L. Miller last winter, too), let's hope that other towns around us will go easy until further reports come in from the experimental areas.

Plenty of reports have been made at the state universities of Arizona, Texas and Mexico, to name a few. Dr. Royal Lee, D.D.S., is director of the Lee Foundation for Nutritional Reserch, 2023 West Wisconsin Avenue, Milwaukee (3), Wis., and he has written books that are both good and convincing, stating that chemical fluorides are definitely dangerous no matter how small the amount. Too much of the "natural fluorine" is harmful to man, but not all. They can be distilled out for children or people who are not rugged enough for as much as 9/10 of one part per million (considered high by many chemists). But chemical fluorides cannot be distilled out, and that is bad. The city would be importing drinking water for those who cannot drink fluoridated water due to poor health, and for the hospitals, too. Even a child neeeds no chemist to tell the difference between a natural food and one made by a chemist.

Friday Evening Ceremony For JoAnn Ferguson, Norman Walt, Jr.

MRS. NORMAN EDWARD WALT, JR.

Mounds of greenery and summer blossoms, and lighted cathedral candles in branched candelabra, formed an attractive background for the wedding of Miss JoAnn Ferguson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Pope Ferguson of Webster Groves, Mo., and Norman Edward Walt, Jr., son of Mrs. Walker Walt, dean of women at Doane college, Crete; and Norman E. Walt of Lincoln, which took place on Friday evening, July 18, at the Presbyterian Church in Webster Groves, Mo. Lighted candles, in triple holders caught with greenery, marked the white carpeted processional aisle.

The 8:30 o'clock ceremony was solemnized by the Rev. Malcolm Martin, minister of Webster Groves Presbyterian, and the wedding music was played by Benjamin Harrison, organist. Mr. Harrison also accompanied Erskine Wright who sang, "I Love Thee," preceding the service, and "The Lord's Prayer" at the close of the benediction.

Miss Mary Devyn Ferguson, as her sister's maid of honor, and the bridesmaids, Miss Joanne Ruddy, Miss Barbara Premer of Normandy, Mo.; Miss Joan Evans of Richmond Heights, Mo., and Miss Barbara Dehoney, appeared in alike frocks of lavender net. Matching stoles covered the bare shoulders above the fitted bodices, and the danseuse-length skirts were fashioned with accentuated fullness. Each carried a bouquet of Vanda orchids encircled with ivy.

Bruce Bergquist of Lincoln served Mr. Walt as best man, and the corps of ushers included William Scroggins of Clayton, Mo.; George Lafferty of Peoria, Ill.; Jack Kaiser of Clayton, and Benjamin Morris of Kirkwood, Mo.

Given in mariage by her father, the bride chose for her wedding a gown of white Chantilly lace and tulle over taffeta. Lace fashioned the slender long-sleeved bodice, closed at the back with minute self-covered buttons from the decollete shoulder to a deep waistline and lengthened to form a front-draped peplum which graduated into a cascade of lace at the back to create a modified bustle. The voluminous skirt was designed of layers of tulle and was completed with a long train. Her fingertip veil of bridal illusion was held to the head with a Capulet of lace, and she carried a colonial bouquet of white orchids frilled with strands of variagated ivy.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the gardens at the Westborough Country Club where the buffet table was appointed with arrangements of summer flowers, and greenery.

For the honeymoon trip to the Broadmoor hotel, Colorado Springs, Mrs. Walt wore a navy shantung suit, with navy and white accessories.

Mrs. Walt attended the University of Missouri where she is a member of Pi Beta Phi sorority. Mr. Walt attended the University of Nebraska, where he is a member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon, and was graduated from the University of Missouri.

Just Between Us

—the tall and handsome Premier of Pakistan was causing quite a stir in the lobby of San Francisco's Mark Hopkin's hotel. His well-tailored business suit was topped off by a turban wound with yards and yards of toast-colored organdy that ended in an enormous pouf high on one side.

Vim-Vigor-- That's Lincoln

VIM, VIGOR AND vitality are the words that describe Lincoln best—Plenty of vim and vitality are needed, too, to offset the vigorous life one leads around these parts—Never a dull moment, and that's for sure—There is so much going on that we haven't heard a word that has to do with the weather, the corn crop or next week's convention. Our conversational topics have had to do with cruises to Venezuela—the Woodshire golf tournament, coming up next Wednesday—guests galore, and their courtesies—

It goes without saying that we also have other news, and since there is so much to talk about, let's get started—

* * *

OUR VENEZUELA travelers are Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Fitzpatrick who have just returned from their cruise to South America—Since Mr. Fitzpatrick is in the oil business Mr. and Mrs. Fitzpatrick made the cruise on an oil tanker—and were urged to take guests, which they did—Mr. and Mrs. Harry Thompson of Bellflower, Cal. Just in case anyone has any peculiar ideas about an oil tanker, we hasten to tell you that this particular one was arranged with two very luxurious staterooms, with a super-deluxe lounge between, and that we hear it was a most delightful cruise. The tanker left from New York City but on the return trip docked at Philadelphia from where Mr. and Mrs. Fitzpatrick and Mr. and Mrs. Thompson took off for a tour of the New England states—At present the foursome is in Lincoln, but we learned that Mrs. Fitzpatrick and Mr. and Mrs. Thompson leave next week to drive to California where Mrs. Fitzpatrick will remain a month.

* * *

MAYBE YOU already have heard that Mrs. William Crabill of Marks, Miss., arrived in town Friday evening to remain until Monday as the house guest of her brother-in-law and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. James Crabill. Mrs. Crabill came to Lincoln from Colorado Springs, where she is spending some time at the Broadmoor, and will return to Colorado from Lincoln.

* * *

AND THE Robert Grahams of Buenos Aires, who are visiting Mr. Graham's parents in Nebraska City, came Friday to spend a few days as the guests of Mrs. Graham's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Brown.

On Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. Brown and their guests, and Mr. and Mrs. Crabill and their guest, will join a no host group this evening at the Lin-group at the Lincoln Country Club's dinner dance.

* * *

A MOST INFORMAL courtesy to Mrs. Crabill has been planned Sunday morning by Mr. and Mrs. John Chalmers who have invited a small group of guests in for coffee to compliment Mrs. Crabill.

* * *

BUT NOW we come to a courtesy that has nothing to do with a guest—It is the dinner for which Mrs. Sidney Anderson was hostess Friday evening at her home when she entertained in celebration of Mr. Anderson's birthday anniversary. Dinner places were arranged for ten.

* * *

THAT WOODSHIRE golf tournament we mentioned a while back, has all of the earmarks of fun and excitement—As we said before this great event takes place next Wednesday, and it is a golfing duel between the Sicklies, captained by Phil Sidles, and the Declines, captained by Dick Joyce. The sixteen golfers play in foursomes, and at the close of the day all scores are added and results are awaited with bated breath because the winners pay for the hors d' oeuvres, and the losers buy the dinners—not only for the golfers, but the golfers' wives as well.

On Mr. Sidles' Sicklies team are Mr. Sidles, of course—Ted Sick, Dr. W. W. Carveth, A. C. Glandt, Donald Devries, Clair Sloan, Leonard Hines, and L. E. Swanson.

Mr. Joyce's Decline team includes Earl Cline, Mr. Joyce, naturally—Dr. Richard Miller, Dr. Marshall Neely, Hoyt Hawke, Dr. Harold Morgan, L. R. Ricketts and C. W. Hyland.

* * *

THE BASSINET crowd dusted off the red carpet Friday for the arrival of Joseph Carter Harley who arrived on July 18 at Lincoln General Hospital. Young Joe is the son or Mr. and Mrs. James B. Harley, Jr., and his mother is the former Carlene Burnett of Colorado Springs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Burnett. His paternal grandparents, of course, are Mr. and Mrs. J. Burks Harley, and also has a paternal great-grandmother, Mrs. H. H. Harley of Lincoln.

* * *

THE PRAM set also sent out announcements concerning Miss Christine Lee Neff, who made her world debut on Thursday, July 17, at Lincoln General Hospital. The future deb is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Neff, and Mrs. Neff is the former Ruth Speer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Speer of Chicago—Incidentally, Mr. and Mrs. Speer, former Lincoln residents, were on hand to get a first glimpse of their new granddaughter since they were in Lincoln visiting their twin daughters, Mrs. Neff and Miss Dorothy Speer.

Miss Christine's paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Felix Neff of Omaha, came to Lincoln on Friday to greet their granddaughter.

* * *

HAVE A notation or two on vacationists — Understand that Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Miles and Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Requartte left Friday for the Black Hills for a few days stay before going on to Sheridan, Wyo. They plan to be home at the end of a week.

* * *

AND TO THEIR summer home at Pelican Lake, Minn., today will go Mr. and Mrs. Arthur J. Weaver and their family.

* * *

SOMEONE told us that Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Fisher, their two sons, Tommy and Johnny, and their vacation guests, Bill and Tim Stubbs whose real names, we understand are David and Daniel, will be arriving home from Cass Lake, Minn., this week-end.

* * *

AND THAT reminds us—Have you heard the news about Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Stubbs and their family? They are moving to Alliance sometime between now and September 1 — But there is the possibility that the Stubbs family, bag and baggage, will be on their way shortly after August 1.

* * *

HEAR THAT Mr. and Mrs. Flavel Wright and their four sons, Bill, Lynn, Gregg and Scott, went to Scottsbluff last Sunday to spend the day with Mr. Wright's mother, Mrs. Fred Wright—When Mr. and Mrs. Wright returned they were minus two of the boys, Bill and Lynn, who decided to spend two weeks with their grandmother.

* * *

THE GRAPEVINE has it that Mr. and Mrs. Edward McConnell (Jean Rotton) and their family, will be coming from Florham Park, N.J., in August to be the guests of Mrs. McConnell's parents, Dr. and Mrs. Wiliar L. Rotton, and Mr. McConnel's parents, the Rev. and Mrs. Raymond A. McConnell. Also slated for an August visit at Dr. and Mrs. Rotton's are their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. William Rotten of Riverdale, N. Y.

A Popular Visitor

Although her stay in Lincoln has been comparatively a short one, Mrs. Glenn Presnell of Ironton, O., formerly of Lincoln, has had a well filled courtesy book. With Mr. Presnell she leaves today to return home after spending a few days as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Russell.

Betrothal Announced

MISS DELORES ANN DIETZE

Mr. and Mrs. August H. Dietze are this morning announcing the engagement of their daughter, Delores Ann, to Paul A. Hathaway, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin L. Hathaway of Eustis.

The wedding is planned for autumn.

Miss Dietze is a former student at the University of Nebraska, and was graduated from Principia college, Elsah, Ill. For the past year she has been a member of the faculty of the St. Louis public schools.

Mr. Hathaway, who has completed eighteen months of duty with the marine corps, will return to the University of Nebraska in the fall.

Brides-Elect Are Honored

Miss Anita Ackerman, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. G. A. Ackerman, who will be married at 8 o'clock, the evening of Tuesday, August 5, at First Presbyterian Church, to Clyde Henson, has been the guest of honor at several pre-nuptial courtesies.

Included among the courtesies honoring Miss Ackerman was a miscellaneous shower Wednesday evening for which Miss Caroline Ross and Miss Barbara Crowe were co-hostesses at the home of Miss Ross. Fifteen guests were invited and spent the evening with cards.

Miss Ackerman and her fiance were honored last Sunday evening when Mr. and Mrs. Joe Winterhalter and Miss Barbara Scheel entertained at a buffet supper at the Winterhalter home. The evening hours were spent informally and a miscellaneous shower was presented to the couple.

Miss Virginia Comer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur V. Comer, of Beatrice, who will be married at 2:30 o'clock, on Sunday, August 24, at St. Mary's Church in Beatrice, to Bernard I. Brown, son of Mr. and Mrs. Willis Brown of Utica, is announcing her bridal party.

Miss Comer has chosen her sister, Miss Marceline Comer, as her maid of honor. Miss Garnet Comer of Beatrice, also a sister of the bride-elect, will serve as bridesmaid. Thomas Wright of Seward, will serve Mr. Brown as best man and Leon Miller of Utica will seat the guests.

Miss Beverly Kunc, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph K. Kunc, has been the incentive for several pre-nuptial courtesies, among which was a bridge shower for which Mrs. Harold Nelson and Mrs. P. A. Siren were hostesses Friday evening.

Miss Kunc will be married on Saturday, August 16 at St. Teresa Church, to William C. Becker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward A. Becker.

Miss Shirley Kendle and Miss Doris Kendle will be the hostesses Saturday evening at 8 o'clock at their home, honoring Miss Janis Trabert. The guests will present the bride-elect with a miscellaneous shower.

Miss Trabert who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Neil S. Trabert, will be married on Saturday, August 23, to Gene L. Eno, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon M. Eno.

Axis Club Hears Report

A report on the national biennial convention of B. and P. W. clubs held recently at Boston was presented by Miss Eula Ree Merwin, president, at the regular dinner-meeting of Axis B. and P. W. held last Tuesday evening at the Y.W.C.A.

Following the meeting, a demonstration cooking school was held for the members and their guests, including Hilda Aspinall, Mrs. Fern Westhafer, Mrs. Mamie Mulligan, Mrs. Esther Conard, Miss Mary McGahey, Miss Maude Bryant, Miss Medeline Schmidt and Miss Constance Merwin.

A meeting of the club's program committee was held Thursday following dinner at the Y.W.C.A. Plans for summer programs were discussed by the committee members, Miss Tyna Baer, Miss Jocy Carter, Miss Bernice Clark, Mrs. Anne Graham, Miss Nellie Gingles, Miss Leona McCallum, Mrs. Maude Peters, and Miss Geneva Mabon, chairman.

We Hear That

Airman 2/c Bruce L. Bailey, who is stationed at Lackland Air Force Base, San Antonio, Tex., is visiting in Lincoln with his two aunts, Mrs. W. R. Oliver and Mrs. A. G. Williams. From here, he will go to McCook to spend the remainder of his leave with his mother, Mrs. Dean Hoyt. Airman Bailey attended the University of Nebraska before he enlisted in the Air Force.

★

Leaving Friday evening for a vacation trip to California will be Miss Eudora Mallory, who will meet members of her family on the west coast to accompany them to Bryce, Zion and Yosemite national parks and the Grand Canyon.

B. And P.W. Board Meets

The first meeting of the board of the Lincoln Business and Professional Women's club and the newly-appointed committee chairmen was held Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Urania Wedgwood. Miss Helen Scott, club president, presided at the meeting when program plans for the coming year were discussed.

The remainder of the evening was spent with cards, and refreshments were served by Mrs. Wedgwood and her co-hostess, Dr. Ruth Warner.

Next Thursday evening, the club members will meet for a picnic supper at the shelter house near the bandstand in Antelope park. Each member is asked to bring her own silver and dinnerware service, and those wishing transportation to the park may meet between 5:30 o'clock to 6 o'clock at the club rooms.

Quota Club Plans Dinner

Members of Quota club in the western part of the international organization's seventh district are planning an inter-club "get-together" to be held Saturday evening at the Hotel Chieftan in Council Bluffs, Iowa. A program and informal evening will follow the dinner.

Among those attending will be Miss Helen Reed, district governor, and Mrs. Maria Kehm, lieutenant governor, and representing the Lincoln chapter, Miss Phyllis Rhodes, Miss Margie Strain, Miss Ida Blore and Miss Maria Scheidt.

The regular dinner-meeting of the Lincoln Quota club was held last Monday evening and was followed by a cooking and food demonstration conducted by Edna Kniffen. Reports were also given on the Quota International convention held recently at Coronado, Calif.

To Entertain At TV Party

Mr. and Mrs. N. V. Myers will entertain their friends and neighbors next Wednesday and Thursday afternoons and evenings at a series of open houses and television parties. No further invitation will be extended, but guests planning to attend are asked to call Mrs. Myers, 4-3562.

Especially urged to attend the parties are neighbors residing in the democratic precinct, 10-E-2, College View.

Here is a pleasant little game that will give you a message every day. It is a numerical puzzle designed to spell out your fortune. Count the letters in your first name. If the number of letters is 6 or more, subtract 4. If the number is less than 6, add 3. The result is your key number. Start at the upper left-hand corner of the rectangle and check every one of your key numbers left to right. Then read the message the letters under the checked figures give you.

Spangler Advances To Trans-Miss Quarterfinals

SHANTZ WEIGHS IN—Bobby Shantz, Philadelphia Athletics lefthander who is the major leagues' winningest pitcher with 16 wins and three losses, tipped the beam at 139½ pounds when he was placed on the scales at Philadelphia Friday night by Fred Humphreys, chief of that city's bureau of weights and measures, with A's Manager Jimmy Dykes looking on. Shantz's size had been the subject of much discussion among fans and teammates. (AP Wirephoto.)

Bobby Shantz Weigh-In Major League Highlight

From press dispatches

NOW we know.

The weighing and measuring of Bobby Shantz, the Philadelphia A's peanut-sized lefthander, took place at Shibe Park in Philadelphia Friday night, with the following results:

Shantz's official weight is 139½ pounds.

The sensational little moundsman's height is five feet, 6¼ inches.

The ceremony took place in the A's clubhouse before the game between Philadelphia and Detroit. The results were far below Wee Bobby's previous claims.

Despite the ceremony and the new convertible given Shantz by fans from his home town of Pottstown, Pa., the A's were unable to stop Detroit, as the Tigers won, 2-1.

In other junior circuit games, the Yankees stayed in front of the pack with a 6-3 win over Chicago and Boston hung on by dropping third-place Cleveland, 9-2. Washington beat the St. Louis Browns, 6-5.

In the National League, Brooklyn kept up its terrific pace with a 6-2 defeat of last-place Pittsburgh. The St. Louis Cards beat Boston, 7-2, while Philadelphia's fast-climbing Phils hit Cincinnati, 7-5.

New York's scheduled meeting with the Chicago Cubs was rained out.

Despite a five-hit pitching job by Harry Byrd and Reliefer Johnny Kucab, the A's fell before the Tigers, 2-1, as Walt Dropo homered for Detroit. Eddie Joost's homer provided the only Athletic run. Art Houtteman was the winner.

Tom Gorman, who joined the New York Yanks only Wednesday, pitched his second victory in three days as he held the White Sox to three runs. Hank Bauer hit a three-run homer and Gene Woodling added a two-ply wallop to supply the Yankee scoring.

Manager Marty Marion used 22 men in a losing cause, as Washington prevailed over his Brownies, 6-5. Al Zarilla had three doubles for the Veeckmen.

The Boston Red Sox got 13 hits—including eight doubles—as they pounded the Cleveland Indians and Lou Brissie for a 9-2 win. Rookie Ralph Brickner got the win in relief.

Cleveland received a setback when Sam Jones, recently brought up from Indianapolis and Tribe Manager Al Lopez's chosen starter, was ruled ineligible for American League competition until 12:15 today. The ruling was made by Commissioner Ford Frick.

Brooklyn defeated Pittsburgh for the 11th straight time, 6-2, behind the pitching of Billy Loes and Reliefer Joe Black. The Bums scored single runs in six different frames. Ralph Kiner hit his 18th homer of the year to provide one Pirate tally.

Billy Johnson hit a 400-foot grand-slam homer to help 37-year-old Harry (The Cat) Brecheen to his fifth straight win as the Cards beat Boston, 7-2. Sid Gordon hit his 14th roundtripper of the year for the Braves.

The Phillies blew a four-run lead and then scored three times in the ninth to stop Cincinnati, 7-5. Del Ennis drove in four runs for the Phils, and Jim Konstanty got the win.

US Athletes Are Favored

15th Olympiad Starts Today

HELSINKI (INS) — The 15th Olympiad, the biggest in history and one that may go down in history as the "cold war games," will open today in Helsinki to the disquieting tread of the Russians, the roar of 21 guns and the flutter of doves' wings.

The United States, proud winner of the 1948 games at London, will parade 350 strong into Helsinki's great "Stadium of the Future."

The United States is favored to win again in an all-time record field of 5,870 competitors from 70 nations. Track and field stars like Mal Whitfield, Bob Mathias, and Bob Richards, a timber-tall basketball team and the unbeaten Navy eight-oared crew, bulwark the U. S. hopes.

Secretly, the Finns are breathing easier because the issues of whether to admit Red China and East Germany to the games did not cause a violent East-West political split. Another reason is that Russia, in the Olympics for the first time since the Czar, apparently is on its good behavior.

"The Russians aren't walking out this time," a grizzled old official said Friday night. "They're walking into world sports in a big way."

And this they are, for Finland's red-starred neighbor to the East, competing in every sport but field hockey, has thrown nearly 400 of its own home-style "world champions" into the 16-day tournament. Russia is freely expected to battle the U. S. for top honors.

Save for a lone soccer game tonight, action on the playing fields will wait till Sunday. On Sunday, claims confident U. S. Track Coach Brutus Hamilton, the gold medals will start flowing America's way.

Indians Lash Lincoln, 11-3

WELLINGTON, Kas. (AP)—Wichita's Indians unleashed a 20-hit attack on Lincoln, Friday night to capture a 11-3 verdict over the Athletics.

The Tribe knocked extra base hits all over the park. Mike Colombo's two-run homer helped break a four game losing streak. It was the second win in the past 11 games for Wichita.

Lincoln started off in the first inning as if it would send Wichita farther into sixth place when Junior Reedy and Bill Stewart hit solo homers to put the A's in a 2-0 lead, but the Tribe came roaring back in their half of the first with three runs.

Wichita really iced it up in the sixth and sent Starting Pitcher Ed Hrabcsak to the showers. It was the first time Wichita has beaten the big righthander, while Hrabcsak has turned the trick on Wichita twice.

Mrs. Murray Loser In Battle Of Clubs And Irons

Mrs. Fisher Wins Women's City Golf Title

By JIM CLARK
(Star Sports Staff Member)

AFTER three short hours at Pioneers Friday, Mrs. Carl Fisher rose to fame in the Lincoln golfing circle. And thrust tightly in her hands as she left the pro shop was the trophy designating her as the 1952 Womens City Golf Champion.

Cast as the underdog in the championship match with Mrs. D. E. Murray, the new champion scored a startling 2 and 1 triumph to climax eight years of play in the city tournament. Mrs. Murray gained the nod for Friday's battle after upsetting Defending Champion Mrs. Paul Hyland in Thursday's semifinal tussle.

Friday's deciding match turned out to be a battle of clubs and irons. With the clubs gaining the upper-hand.

Mrs. Fisher showed her superiority time after time as she used her drivers to approach the greens, but her opponent relied on her accurate iron shots to send the match to the 17th hole before the final decision.

Playing the back nine first, Mrs. Fisher trailed her opponent 1-up when they moved into the front stretch. On the tenth she fell behind another hole when her tee shot strayed to the left of the fairway and she missed a two-foot putt.

But with the chips down, the champion rallied on the next two holes to tie the match. On both 11 and 12 it was the drives of Mrs. Fisher that provided the decisive edge and the downfall of her opponent.

By the time the next two holes were fashioned in even par, the strain of the match began to tell on the less-experienced Mrs. Murray. She had a chance to go ahead on No. 15 when she landed on the green in four but then required three putts. This enabled the winner, who had scooted across the green with her fourth shot, to make a brilliant comeback with a neat chip shot and a one putt for a 1-up edge.

The only birdie of the day, a two on the par three, 150-yard 16th hole, provided Mrs. Fisher with the winning margin. Landing on the green after teeing off, Mrs. Fisher sank a six foot putt to nip her opponent, who had parred the hole.

Both players shot a one over par on the 17th hole and the new champ was thronged by well-wishers who had gathered at the 16th hole to watch the remaining battle.

Mrs. Harry Scott scored a 9-7 victory over Mrs. Ted Franks to win the first flight title in the 18-hole bracket. She had previously beaten Mrs. Dale Ganz in the first round and Mrs. Charles Pierce in the semi-finals.

Mrs. Floyd Chance captured the 9-hole honors in the championship flight by edging Mrs. Walter Herrion, 1-up. First flight honors went to Mrs. Robert Stein with a 4-3 conquest of Mrs. Dick Miller. Mrs. Selden Davey took the second flight title by defeating Mrs. Glen Trimble, 5-3.

In the Junior Girls bracket, Janet Turner took the championship flight with a 3-1 verdict over Nancy Hallam. Cynthia Barber won the Junior consolation flight by defeating Janet Danielson, 4-2.

Mrs. Charles Folkers took first in the 18-hole consolation championship flight after Mrs. Thelma Woods defaulted.

Playing her only match of the tourney, Mrs. Harvey Kaufman won the second flight title in the 18-hole bracket. Earlier she had drawn a first round bye and then reached the finals when Mrs. Ed Taber defaulted.

Elks Win, 8-6, In Wild Affair

SEWARD—(Lincoln Star Special)—The Lincoln Elks, despite a near collapse afield, squeezed out an 8-6 win over the Seward Legion nine here Friday night.

In a wild affair which saw the usually reliable Lincoln defense commit 10 errors, Jerry Schwindt, pitching in relief, got credit for the Elks' eighth win of the season against six losses.

After Seward Hurler Loren Deckman put his club into an early lead with a 340-foot home run, the Elks tied the score and the two teams went into the eighth inning deadlocked at 4-4.

Then Dick Cecil opened the Lincoln half of the eighth as he took first on an error. After Bob Barnett forced Cecil, four straight singles by Ken Forbes, Schwindt, Smith and Jim Maul accounted for three runs and a winning margin.

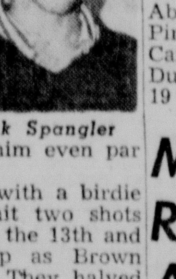
Lincolnite Defeats Fred Brown Of L.A., 4 And 3

From Press Dispatches

DENVER—Lincoln's Dick Spangler advanced to the quarterfinals of the Trans-Mississippi golf tournament here Friday as he numbed Fred Brown, Stanford University golfer from Los Angeles, 4 and 3, in third-round play.



Dick Spangler

Spangler went one up on the fifth with a birdie two. They halved the other eight holes in the first round. Spangler's bogey four on the first hole gave him even par for the first nine.

He won the 10th with a birdie two when Brown hit two shots into a lake and won the 13th and 14th to go four up as Brown bogeyed both holes. They halved the par five 15th to end the match.

The 22-year-old University of Nebraska law school junior, who last week won the Nebraska Men's golf championship, comes up against a creditable opponent at 9 a.m. today in the person of Bill Carey, playing out of the Denver Country Club.

Friday, Carey uset Jimmy Breen, the Albuquerque, N. M., darkhorse who himself upset two favorites in the tourney's early rounds. Carey defeated the New Mexico University sophomore, 4 and 3, in what International News Service described as the top match played at Lakewood Country Club.

Meanwhile, tourney favorite Charlie Coe of Ardmore, Okla., and Bill Parker, 18-year-old Tulsa sensation, won in a pair of tough matches.

Coe, twice a Trans-Miss champ and a former U.S. Amateur titlist, had to go 20 holes to beat another Denverite, Joe Lynch. Parker shaded R. A. Jennings of Lubbock, Tex., 2 and 1.

Buster Reed, the lone remaining member of North Texas State College's NCAA championship foursome, downed Lew North of Denver, 3 and 2. The NCAA individual titlist, Jim Vickers of Wichita, bowed to Denver's Bernard Woody, 2 and 1.

In other matches, Ed Hopkins of Abilene, Tex., defeated Skid Pirtle, Denver, 6 and 5; and Duke Carey of Denver defeated Herb Durham of Dallas, Tex., 1 up in 19 holes.

Micro-Midget Racers To Try Again Sunday

. . . 18-Car Field Predicted

By WAYNE PANTER
(Star Sports Staff Member)

Lincoln's first glimpse of micro-midget auto racing, postponed from last Sunday because of heavy week-end rains, should be all the better for the delay when the little cars roll around the newly-constructed one-eighth mile track at 600 West Van Dorn this Sunday.

Clyde Clymer, president of the Lincoln Micro-Midget Racing Association, said that at least one and possibly two other Lincoln cars have been completed or remodeled and will be set to challenge the leaders in state association standings this week end.

Alva Sultzbaugh's new No. 3-A will get its baptism in the season opener.

Clymer said that a probable minimum of 18 cars will be on hand at 2:30 p.m. when the time trials—the first of nine scheduled events—get under way. Slated to follow are four heat races and a consolation race, all 10 laps; a seven-lap trophy dash, a novelty race and the 20-lap feature.

Favorites will be the Clymer Special, driven by Jim Love of Lincoln; and the Alton Special, piloted by Wayne Ward of Ralston, Neb. The two racers are currently waging a battle for first place in state Micro-Midget Association standings, with a slight edge to the Lincoln driver.

The Clymer Special holds the state record for the one-lap distance, having turned the one-eighth mile raceway at Ralston in :15.95 seconds—just short of 30 miles per hour.

In addition to the Clymer and Sultzbaugh cars, ten other Lincoln entries are expected to race. Another dozen cars from elsewhere in the state and from Iowa and Kansas, now competing in the state circuit, are eligible to race in Lincoln Sunday.

Waterfield Signs Two-Year Contract For Fat Pay Boost

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Capt. Bob Waterfield signed an unprecedented contract for two years as quarterback of the Champion Los Angeles Rams Friday at a salary that makes him one of the highest paid players in the National Football League.

Terms of the contract, a departure from the usual one-year deal by the Rams, were not divulged.

Reliable sources say that Waterfield collected $16,500 last year. And in view of his great season of 1951 in leading the club to its second championship, it stands to reason that he earned a nice boost in pay. How much is anyone's guess.

It took Waterfield and Daniel F. Reeves, president of the Rams, just 15 minutes to come to terms. Preliminary negotiations had been in process for days, however.

The 32-year-old former UCLA star volunteered no details of the pact.

Iowa City Duo Wins Mo Valley Doubles

AMES (AP)—Art Andrews and Bill Voxman of Iowa City, Ia., won the first title in the Missouri Valley Tennis Tournament Friday by defeating Earl Huchholtz and Neil Drury, St. Louis, 6-3, 6-1, in the boys' doubles.

Andrews also will meet Buchholtz for the boys' singles title.

Most of Friday's play was in doubles competition with no men's or women's singles.

Alex George, Kansas City, and Len Prosser, Mission, Kas., a pair of veterans, will meet Paul Hurley and Buddy McCune, Tulsa, Okla., for the men's doubles crown.

Nora Prosser and Lucille Davidson, Lee's Summit, Mo., rank as favorites over Bonnie Hejna, St. Louis, and Phyllis Vance, Omaha, in the women's doubles final.

An all-Shrawnee, Okla., final in the junior boys' singles was set between Dale Anderson and John Been.

NO 20-WINNERS

BROOKLYN—The 1949 Dodgers were the last major league club to win a pennant without a 20-game winning pitcher.

Price Of 'Beef' Up, Cox, Jackie Fined

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Lee Scott, traveling secretary of the Brooklyn Dodgers, said Friday Jackie Robinson and Billy Cox have been fined for demonstrations in Thursday night's game at Cincinnati.

Scott said Robinson was fined $50 and Cox $25. The Brooklyn players were advised of the fines by telegrams from National League President Warren Giles.

Robinson was ejected from the game after he protested a play in which Eddie Pellagrini was called safe while stealing second base. Robinson kicked his glove high into the air.

Cox replaced Robinson at second and a short time later he began arguing with Base Umpire Augie Guglielmo and was ejected. There was no official announcement as to why Cox was arguing with Guglielmo. It was believed he took up Robinson's protest.

Brooklyn won the game 2-1.

Nebraska City Juniors Get Nod

TALMAGE — Nebraska City will meet Seward in the first game of the District 12 American Legion Junior baseball tournament here July 24, Edward Flake, tourney director, announced.

The loser of the first game will meet the Talmage nine the next night. The double-loss and elimination tournament will continue with one game a night until completed.

NU Football Tickets Ready

Season football tickets for the University of Nebraska home season are ready for distribution, Business Manager A. J. Lewandowski announced.

A. J. Lewandowski

Notices are being mailed to all those who have tickets on reservation. Season tickets can be picked up at any time between now and the deadline August 30.

Single game orders are being accepted for all games and will be filled at least 10 days before each contest.

There will be a Knothole section for all contests, Lewandowski said.

All new orders for season books are being held until after the deadline date of August 30.

Student ticket sale will be held September 15-16. Student tickets will be $5 and faculty tickets, $6.

"Although we have had a heavy advance sale, tickets are still available for all games," Lewandowski said. "These include both reserved tickets in the stadium and unreserved bleacher tickets.

Whittier 'B' Gets First Win; Arms Twirls No-Hitter

Whittier defeated Prescott, 8-5, in Class B Midget Baseball League play Friday afternoon in a game that had far-reaching consequences.

The victory, Whittier's first of the season, threw Prescott into a tie for first place in the league standings with Irving.

Vieing in importance with the Whittier win was the Randolph A club's 11-0 win over Havelock. George Arms broke into the select circle of no-hit pitchers as he let the Shoptowners down with nary a bingle.

Randolph got 11 hits off Havelock Hurler Jack Truax en route to the shutout. Leading batsmen included Hammel, who went three for four; Pavlas, who went two for two, and Sell, with two for three.

Commissioner Ken Greenwood said that the scheduled exhibition games between the Muny A and B teams and two teams from York will be played at 2 p.m. Sunday at the Muny diamond.

Jim Vogt will handle the mound chores for the A team, Paul Ude for the B contingent.

Calumet Horse Is Favored In Classic

CHICAGO (AP)—Eleven of the nation's top three-year-olds charge from the starting gate in the $151,450 Arlington Classic today to scramble for $106,375, richest first prize in racing history for three-year-olds.

Calumet Farm's Mark-Ye-Well, oddly never a starter in a stakes event and one of the lowest money earners in the field, probably will go to the post a 2-1 favorite. The colt, winner of three races in five starts, never has raced on an off track, and a heavy rain that hit the Arlington course Friday may alter the whole setup for the Calumet colt.

However, there are five excellent mudders in the classic field—Greentree Stable's juvenile champion of 1951, Tom Fool, Dixiana Stable's Sub Fleet, second in the 1952 Kentucky Derby; Cain Hoy Stable's Armageddon; Robert W. McIlvain's King Beast, and Red Top Stable's Red Charger.

Mark-Ye-Well has been installed favorite, principally because of the story book success of Calumet's famed trainer, Ben Jones. The colt, which will be ridden by America's premier jockey, Eddie Arcaro, has earned only $8,545, but the son of Bull Lea-Mark-Kell never has been out of the money.

State Bonus For Lease Change Out

Collection by the Board of Educational Lands and Funds of half of the consideration involved when a school land lease is transferred from one party to another is no longer permissable, Robert Nelson, assistant attorney general, said Friday.

He said the Board reached the conclusion after a hearing conducted by Paul White, Lincoln attorney, in a case involving transfer of a lease from Maude A. Kruser, Arnold, administratrix of an estate, to Patty Ann Parks, niece of the late lease holder.

A 1947 legislative act provided that the state should get half of the consideration involved when a school land lease was transferred. This provision was part of the same legislation which provided for automatic renewal of school land leases.

Held Unconstitutional

The State Supreme Court held the automatic renewal provision unconstitutional.

After a lease has been bought at auction, the successful bidder still has the right to assign the lease to someone else, Nelson explained.

The Board has accepted White's conclusion that the provision for collection of half of the consideration in an assignment went out along with the automatic renewal provision.

During the four years the old act was in force, the Board realized between $50,000 nd $100,000 in bonuses as its half of the consideration.

News Indicates Death Nearer For Eva Peron

BUENOS AIRES (INS)—The Argentine state radio—in an unusual move—broke into all regular stations' programs Friday night and flashed the news that Argentina's first lady, Eva Peron, has suffered a further serious relapse.

The nature of the announcement and the highly irregular method in which it was made brought normal activities to a virtual standstill throughout Argentina.

Most of the nation's cabinet members headed for the presidential mansion shortly after the unusual state radio news flash.

The Argentine Senate also recessed to permit its members to go to the presidential residence.

Millions of radio listeners across the country speculated on the exact significance of the news bulletin. Senora Peron reportedly is suffering from cancer although the exact nature of her ailment has never been disclosed officially.

Former FBI Agent Says Crime Increase Alarming

A former special agent for the Federal Bureau of Investigation, James L. Morrison, gave Kiwanis Club members an inside look at the Bureau during a meeting at the Lincoln Hotel.

Morrison pointed out that criminal activity is and has been increasing at an alarming rate since the end of World War II with the greatest number of criminals falling into the 15 to 25 age group level.

Morrison believes that although the number of known Communists in the U.S. has been shaved down to 30,000, "There are so many Communist sympathizers and fellow travelers that the organization is capable of causing a lot of damage here."

Morrison was once FBI agent in Albany N.Y., and Burlington, Vt.

Mrs. Nellie Leeke Dies; Lincolnite For 30 Years

Mrs. Nellie Leeke, 1216 G, a Lincoln resident for more than 30 years, died Friday.

Mrs. Leeke

She came to Lincoln in 1919 after having lived in Blackhawk, Colo., Denver and Cordova. She came to the United States in 1910 from Smithwick, England.

She was a member of Holy Trinity Episcopal Church and the Send Out Sunshine Club.

Survivors are three daughters, Mrs. Mary Catuska and Mrs. Annie Fothergil, both of Seattle, Wash., and Mrs. Mildred Dewey of Lincoln; one son, Thomas R., Lincoln, three brothers, Ben Wheeler of Smithwick, England, Earnest Wheeler, Denver, and Henry Wheeler, Omaha, 11 grandchildren and three great grandchildren.

Woman Fined $25 After Biting Battle With 2 Policemen

For resisting arrest by two policemen—including biting one and tearing the sleeves from the shirt of another—20-year-old Mary B. Ring, 2323 E, was fined $15 and costs in Municipal Court.

Officer Roe Heston told Judge John Jacobson that he and Officer Art Aksamit found the girl sleeping in a car on E between 23rd and 24th early Friday morning.

After awakening her, they arrested her on a drunk charge, he said. When she resisted, Heston said, she had to be handcuffed and brought to Police Headquarters.

There she tried to jump from a second floor railing, he told the Court.

Miss Ring said she was trying to "get away from them—they were hurting me."

She was also fined $10 and costs for drunkeness.

Kunkel Gets Year Each For Escape, Car Theft

Thomas F. Kunkel, 20-year-old Penitentiary inmate who took a dump truck from a local firm, after escaping, was sentenced to one year on each of two counts by District Judge Harry A. Spencer. The sentences will run concurrently.

Kunkel pleaded guilty to the escape and auto theft charges. He admitted taking the truck from the Schwarck Excavating Company, 4813 Lowell, and abandoning it near Marysville, Kan. He was picked up in St. Joseph, Mo.

Kunkel, who was serving a year for burglary, walked away from a dairy detail Sunday.

Five Juveniles Put On Parole After Vandalism

Five juveniles, three boys and two girls, were placed on parole to their parents, under supervision of the Child Welfare Agency, for their part in vandalism in University Place.

Two pairs of brothers and sisters and another boy were involved in the break-in of two vacant houses and a school building, according to Juvenile Judge Harry A. Spencer. At one of the houses, the youngsters, ranging in age from seven to 11, apparently started a fire. Estimates of damage to this house were not available.

Six window were broken in the school, and $125 damage was done at one house, where walls were kicked in and windows broken.

If you like beer you'll love Schlitz

Here is more than just a bottle or can of beer. Its taste appeal and stand-up character have made Schlitz the biggest selling beer in history.

No wonder people tell us that we have a "sixth" sense in putting together the sensitive ingredients of beer.

Few Sale Cattle; Hogs Higher 25c

OMAHA (AP)—Hogs were strong to 25 cents higher here Friday with receipts down to an estimated 3,000.

The top reached $22 for the first time since May 22. It was paid by shippers. Local packers stopped at $21.25.

Only a limited supply of slaughter cattle were on sale and there was little demand for them. Steers, heifers and vealers were practically normal with good Holstein steers at $27.25.

OMAHA

Hogs: Salable 3,000; moderately active, strong to mostly 25c higher; choice No. 1, 2 and 3 barrows and gilts 180-240 lbs., $21.25 @22.00; 240-270 lbs., $20.50@21.75; 270-300 lbs., $19.75@20.75; 300-360 lbs., $18.75@20.000; choice 270-360 lb. sows, $18.50@20.00; 360-400 lbs., $17.50@18.75; 400-450 lbs., $16.75@17.75; 450-550 lbs., $15.75@17.00; stags, $13.00@16.00.

Cattle: Salable 600; calves salable 25; most buying interests rather indifferent toward slaughter classes; scattered sales steady to weak; most beef cows being carried over as bids sharply lower, also some bulls will be carried; stockers and feeders scarce, unchanged; one load commercial grade fed steers Holsteins, $27.25; canner and cutter cows mostly $14.50@17.00; odd commercial bulls up to $27.50; few commercial to choice vealers, $26.00@31.00.

Sheep: Salable 125; salable receipts only 125; all classes steady with Thursday; choice and prime native spring slaughter lambs, $30.00; good and choice $27.75@29.25; good and choice slaughter ewes, $7.50@8.25; cull and utility grades, $5.50@7.00; not enough offerings of other classes to establish trend.

SIOUX CITY

Cattle: Salable 550; calves 225; slaughter cattle supply largely small lots; hardly enough to test market; scattered sales steers, heifers and mixed yearlings about steady; few choice lots $31.00@33.00; latter price for mixed yearlings; cows weak; few cutter to utility $19.00@21.00; fresh stocker and feeder supply mainly held for Monday.

Hogs: Salable 2,600; active; most butchers 25c higher; occasional weights over 300 lbs. 25-50c higher; top 10c higher; cows largely 25c higher; choice barrows and gilts 190-240 lbs. $21.75@22.25; few light weights $22.35; some choice 160 lbs. $18.50; 240-270 lbs. $20.50@22.00; 270-300 lbs. $19.75@21.00; 330-370 lbs. $18.50@19.25; choice sows 360 lbs. down $19.00@20.00; choice light weights to $20.25; 360-400 lbs. $18.25@19.25; 400-450 lbs. $17.00@18.50; load 417 lbs. $16.50.

KANSAS CITY

Hogs: 1,500. Fairly active, 25c to 50c higher than Thursday average. Most advance on medium weight butchers. Largely shippers market. Choice one, two and three 190 to 240 lbs. $21.50@22.00. Largely latter price on several lots number one and two choice. 250 to 270 lb. butchers mostly two and three $21.00@22.50. Heavier weights scarce. Sows scarce to steady $17.75@18.50.

Cattle: Not enough to test the market.

BOND MARKET

NEW YORK (AP)—The bond market stumbled Friday, but it was in no hurry to call.

Almost the entire railroad section declined, with Chicago & Eastern Illinois incomes leading the minus parade with a three-point drop to 88½. Utilities and industrials were also lower, but there were more individualists to resist the tide in these departments.

Though the movement was the most decisive of the week, trading was the smallest. Volume totaled $2,620,000 par value compared with $2,900,000 Thursday.

Several causes were credited with unsteadying the market. First, the continuing steel strike. Second, hints of a long-awaited truce in Korea. Third, the bulkiness of recent new offerings, cutting into demand for outstanding issues. And fourth, old-fashioned "profit taking" from a market which had climbed steadily for several months.

Government bonds were firm, however. In meager activity, the new 2⅜s were unchanged to 100 10/32 bid. Likewise, the victory 2½s at 98 112/32 bid and the bank-eligible 2½s at 98 20/32 bid.

Sharp Setback In Two Point Decline

NEW YORK (INS)—The stock market declined fractions to 2 points Friday for one of its sharpest setbacks since the summer advance began early in May.

With volume only slightly above the 1,000,000 share total, the drop was due to more lack of nearby support rather than any aggressive selling pressure.

Three principal factors were behind Friday's unsettlement. First, was the announcement that President Truman was considering seizure of the strike-bound steel mills under authority of the selective service act. Second, was increased optimism over the prospects of any early Korean peace; and third, was the possibility that the new premier of Iran might settle that country's oil dispute with Britain with a weakening effect upon the world oil price structure.

Oil shares were among the soft spots. Barber oil was down 3 at its worst, while Gulf was off 1½, and Socony-Vacuum and Standard of New Jersey were down a point each.

Losses in the pivotal list were generally held to fractions.

However, Consolidated Edison, which had held within a 2½ point range all year, slumped nearly 2 points to a new low on an unfavorable rate ruling.

Atlantic Coast Line led the rails downward with a 2 point dip. Southern Pacific Southern Railway and Illinois Central were off 1 each.

THE OWL COURT
ON U. S. HIWAY NO. 24
IN STOCKTON, KANSAS
WEDNESDAY, JULY 23
2:30 P.M.

Situated on a corner lot 150'x150' in the down town section of the city and served by all city facilities including low cost natural gas for heat, low real estate taxes and operating costs make this court an outstanding property.

THE COURT: Has 9 buildings of excellent construction, white stucco exteriors, red shingled roofs, plastered and painted interiors, 12 fully modern rooms with excellent furnishings, 22 beds all with near new innerspring mattresses and an abundance of fine linens and bedding. Every building has recently been painted inside and out and this is one of the cleanest courts you will ever find. The heat is by vented space heaters and all rooms are air conditioned.

THE SITE: Very attractive with nice shade trees, good hard surfaced drives and loads of parking, also plenty of room for expansion if desired.

THE RESIDENCE: Located at the front center, has 6 rooms with bath, at the rear of the residence is a laundry and supply room.

The income picture of this court shows a consistent yearly gross income exceeding $13,000.00 over the past 4 years with low overhead and operating costs.

Stockton is the county seat of Rooks County, has excellent schools and churches of all denominations, is located half way between Kansas City and Denver on one of the best tourist highways, U.S. 24

The terms are 15% in cash day of the sale and is being sold subject to a loan of $28,400.00 which may be assumed by the purchaser. Possession on settlement. 20

90% Parity Price Supports On Corn, Wheat Extended To 1955

WASHINGTON (AP) — Government support of cotton, wheat, corn, rice, tobacco and peanut prices at 90 per cent of parity through 1954 was guaranteed when President Truman signed a controversial agricultural bill.

The new law may well represent one of the Truman administration's strongest bids for farm support in the November elections.

The President called it "a valuable addition to the agricultural legislation which has been so important in maintaining a strong and stable farm economy . . ."

Sliding Scale Junked

For one thing, the new law sets aside the sliding scale of price supports for the 1953 and 1954 crop years.

Under this system, and excepting tobacco, the government could reduce support levels down to 75 per cent of parity if it felt the supply justified such action.

Parity is a price for farm products determined by a legal formula to be fair to farmers in relation to prices of things they buy.

"The principle of the sliding scale," Truman said in a statement issued when he signed the bill, "is that the volume of farm production can and should be adjusted downward by dropping the level of support provided farmers.

"As I have stated repeatedly, this is neither a workable method of adjustment nor a fair one. It would provide farmers with the least protection when protection is most needed."

Two Methods Available

The new law also delays for two more years the shift from the old method of computing parity to a new method insofar as corn, wheat, cotton and peanuts are concerned.

It provides that parity for all six of the basic crops may be determined through 1955 by whichever of the two methods gives the higher price.

Only four crops are affected at this time because the new formula gives a higher price for rice and tobacco.

Sanitary Board Is Asked To Buy Land Damaged By Work

Mrs. Hazel M. Coy, 2025 No. 14th, has asked the Board of Sanitary District No. 1 to buy her property, which is located near work on Salt Creek being conducted to straighten the creek and work on a new bridge.

Mrs. Coy told the board that she had been trying to sell her house, but had been unable to do so because work by the sanitary district had placed large mounds of dirt on four sides of her property. She said drainage problems created by the work had caused water and mud to back up in her basement, and to fill portions of her yard.

She claimed that the value of her property had been greatly decreased by the work. The board agreed to investigate the matter.

The Board passed a resolution setting the cost of pipe recently laid in sewer district No. 30 at $4,842 of which $3,540 will be assessed against property owners in the district. Sewers in the West A district totaled 1,325 feet.

In another matter, District Engineer Walter B. Coale told the board a recent heavy flow of water caused two small county dams to go out. One was on Salt Creek, northwest of Greenwood, and the other on Haines Branch.

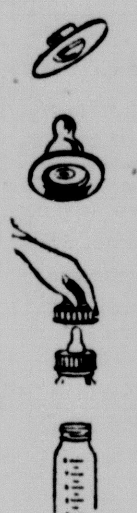
New Nurser in GOLD'S Baby Shop



Nursmatic Features
- Insta-Valve allows only liquid into the nipple-no air.
- Insta-Valve is made of stainless steel, inserted quickly into nipple.
- Slip-on hood, sanitary cover, no need to invert nipple.
- Duraglass bottle has easy-to-see markers.

Nursmatic Insta-Valve

Reduces Air-Swallowing

Nursmatic nurser complete with self-measuring bottle, either 4 or 8 oz. size. 75c Complete

The amazing new Insta-Valve action enables baby to obtain his food in measured amounts, through normal jaw and sucking movements, with a minimum of colic inducing air-swallowing.

When baby's mouth applies pressure on the nipple a tiny valve closes to prevent liquid in nipple from returning to bottle. Release of pressure causes valve to open and nipple is quickly refilled with formula in the proper amount. Plastic slip-on hood keeps nipple sterile until ready to use.
